Abbas Kiarostami Monika Raesch, 2023-04-21 The cinephile community knows Abbas Kiarostami 1940 2016 as one of the most important filmmakers of the previous decades This volume illustrates why the Iranian filmmaker achieved critical acclaim around the globe and details his many contributions to the art of filmmaking Kiarostami began his illustrious career in his native Iran in the 1970s although European and American audiences did not begin to take notice until he released his 1987 feature Where's the Friend's House His films defy established conventions placing audiences as active viewers who must make decisions about actions and characters while watching the narratives unfold He asks viewers to question the genre construct Close Up and challenges them to determine how to watch and imagine a narrative Ten and Shirin In recognition for his approach to the craft Kiarostami was awarded many honors during his lifetime including the top prize at the Cannes Film Festival in 1997 for Taste of Cherry In Abbas Kiarostami Interviews editor Monika Raesch collects eighteen interviews several translated into English for the first time lectures and other materials that span Kiarostami's career in the film industry In addition to exploring his expertise the texts provide insight into his life philosophy This volume offers a well rounded picture of the filmmaker through his conversations with journalists film scholars critics students and audience members

Voice & Vision Mick Hurbis-Cherrier, Gustavo Mercado, 2025-04-23 Develop your creative voice whilst acquiring the practical skills and confidence to use it with this new and fully updated edition of Mick Hurbis-Cherrier's filmmaking bible Voice interactive and high resolution figures extra technical chapters forms and logs for preproduction production and postproduction video examples that illustrate key concepts found within the book and more The fourth edition has been fully revised and includes updates to video formats camera technology and lighting tools expanded sections on multi camera shooting smartphone filmmaking and drone cinematography a new example short film for streaming and analysis discussions on emerging AI applications for film production additional information and resources on film set safety including best practices for intimacy scenes and updates to contemporary funding and distribution strategies Whether using it in the classroom or looking for a comprehensive reference Voice Vision details all that's needed to know about the filmmaking process delivered in an accessible and reader friendly format

Voice and Vision Mick Hurbis-Cherrier, 2012-11-12 Voice Vision is a comprehensive manual for the independent filmmakers and film students who want a solid grounding in the tools techniques and processes of narrative film in order to achieve their artistic vision This book includes essential and detailed information on relevant film and digital video tools a thorough overview of the filmmaking stages and the aesthetic considerations for telling a visual story The ultimate goal of this book is to help you develop your creative voice while acquiring the solid practical skills and confidence to use it Unlike many books that privilege raw technical information or the line producing aspects of production Voice Vision places creativity visual expression and cinematic ideas front and center After all every practical decision a filmmaker makes like choosing a location an actor a film stock a focal length a lighting set up an edit point or a sound effect is also an expressive one and should serve the filmmaker's vision. Every decision from the largest conceptual choices to the smallest practical solutions has a profound impact on what appears on the screen and how it moves an audience. In Practice sidebars throughout connect conceptual aesthetic and technical issues to their application in the real world. Some provide a brief analysis of a scene or technique from easily rentable films which illustrate how a specific technology or process is used to support a conceptual narrative or aesthetic choice. Others recount common production challenges encountered on real student and professional shoots which will inspire you to be innovative and resourceful when you are solving your own filmmaking challenges.

Hamrāh Bā Bād Abbas Kiarostami, 2001 This bilingual edition of recent verse by the celebrated Iranian filmmaker Abbas Kiarostami award winning director of such films as Close Up and Taste of Cherry includes English translations of more than two hundred crystalline haiku like poems together with their Persian originals. The translators noted Persian literature scholars Ahmad Karimi Hakkak and Michael Beard contribute an illuminating introduction to Kiarostami's poetic enterprise examining its relationship to his unique cinematic corpus and to the traditions of classic and contemporary Persian poetry. Of interest to enthusiasts of cinema and literature alike. Walking with the Wind the second volume in Harvard Film Archive's series Voices and Visions in Film sheds light on a contemporary master who transforms simple fragments of reality into evocative narrative landscapes.

Out of Asia Bert Cardullo, 2008 Out of Asia: The Films of Akira Kurosawa Satyajit Ray Abbas Kiarostami and Zhang Yimou is a collection of interviews with and essays about the four filmmakers who introduced the cinema of their respective countries to the West. Kurosawa Japan and Ray India in the 1950s Kiarostami Iran and Zhang China in the 1980s. Kurosawa and Ray were post World War II phenomena as the new breed of American cinephiles demanded more contact with Asian cultures of which they had known little until the 1940s. Kiarostami and Zhang for their part are both post revolutionary filmmakers whose films have helpfully introduced Americans to two Eastern cultures with which the American government has long had and continues to have a problematic relationship. As a whole then Out of Asia documents an alternative to Western brands of cinema even as these four foreign directors with the possible exception of Kiarostami integrate Western forms styles and genres into their own native traditions. As such these artists could be said to represent a global filmmaking perspective that now more than ever this world and the American nation can use. Each of the interviews in this volume is accompanied by an overview of the director's career or an essay on representative films by him. In addition Out of Asia is preceded by a contextualizing introduction it is followed by filmographies a bibliography and an index and the book is interspersed with photographs of the four directors in question or stills from their films. There are books devoted to individual filmmakers like Kurosawa Ray Kiarostami and Zhang but until Out of Asia there has not been one that treats representatives of four national cinemas from their own point of view as well as from an international perspective.

As the Cold Wind Blows Mark

Jones, 2011-06-01 Description The sickening murders of two close friends Imelda Hart and Mabel Bright begin a terrifying and sinister journey into the strange happenings of a small English town where sleep can mean torture extreme psychological torment and ultimately death for millions of other people worldwide To fall asleep means to be watched by those who have appeared from nowhere and sleep when their work is done The long black deathly cars patrol the streets now owned by this group of unknown evil and crazy men called the Masters On the streets their drones powered by thoughts and callous orders collect wandering spirits and still wide awake souls for the nightmarish world they have created Min Ritchie and their friends find themselves caught up this seemingly unending hell The Masters can take you when you are awake and also while you sleep in a place where the real world and the imaginary one collide with devastating consequences The Masters and drones are symbols symbols of something else deep within the subconscious mind creating a strange scenario that just won't let anyone go not today tomorrow or at any time in the future whether in this world or the next About the Author Born in Wrexham North Wales without a plan but as it sometimes does destiny came calling It put a pen in Mark Jones hand and many stories in his mind Where this particular idea came from is a mystery as big as why it was given to him but he hopes others enjoy the story as much as he enjoyed writing it School Library Journal ,1998 Video Source Book ,2006 A guide to programs currently available on video in the areas of movies entertainment general interest education sports recreation fine arts health science business industry children juvenile how to instruction Film Composers Directory ,2000 Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 1998 ,1998 Sound of the Crowd: a Discography of the '80s (Fourth Edition) Steve Binnie,2018-11-05 SOUND OF THE CROWD A DISCOGRAPHY OF THE 80s is the ultimate record collector's guide to the 1980s In the era of multi formatting picture discs coloured vinyl multiple remixes funny shaped records and tiny CDs you could lose down the back of the sofa this book lists every format of every single EP and album released in the UK in the 1980s by over 140 of the decade's biggest acts from ABBA to Paul Young This fourth edition has been fully revised and expanded to include even more acts than ever before with additional sections to cover Band Aid style charity congregations and compilation albums from the early 80s K Tel efforts through to the Now That's What I Call Music series and its competitors Compiled by Steve Binnie editor of the 80s music website Sound of the Crowd and writer producer and co host of the unconventional 80s chart show Off The Chart broadcast weekly on Mad Wasp Radio Films of the American Indian Film Festival, 1975-2000 American Indian Film Institute,2001 Lars von Trier's Cinema Rebecca Ver Straten-McSparran,2021-11-11 This book offers a bold and dynamic examination of Lars von Trier's cinema by interweaving philosophy and theology with close attention to aesthetics through style and narrative It explores the prophetic voice of von Trier's films juxtaposing them with Ezekiel's prophecy and Ricoeur's symbols of evil myth and hermeneutics of revelation The films of Lars von Trier are categorized as extreme cinema inducing trauma and emotional rupture rarely paralleled while challenging audiences to respond in new ways This volume argues that the spiritual biblical content of the films holds a key to understanding von Trier's oeuvre of excess Spiritual conflict is the mechanism that unpacks the films notorious excess with explosive centrifugal force By confronting the spectator with spiritual conflict through evil von Trier's films truthfully and prophetically expose the spectator's complicity in personal and structural evil forcing self examination through theological themes analogous to the prophetic voice of the transgressive Hebrew prophet Ezekiel his prophecy and its form of delivery Placed in context with the prophetic voices of Dante Milton Dostoyevsky O'Connor and Tarkovsky this volume offers a theoretical framework beyond von Trier It will be of great interest to scholars in film studies film and philosophy film and theology
