Between Worlds A shaman is one who has learned to move between two worlds our physical reality and the realm of spirits For John Lockley shamanic training also meant learning to cross the immense divide of race and culture in South Africa As a medic drafted into the South African military in 1990 John Lockley had a powerful dream Even though I am a white man of

Irish and English descent I knew in my bones that I had received my calling to become a sangoma a traditional South African shaman John writes I felt blessed by the ancient spirit of Africa and I knew that I had started on a journey filled with magic and danger His path took him from the hills of South Korea where he trained as a student under Zen Master Su Bong to the rural African landscape of the Eastern Cape and the world of the sangoma mystic healers where he found his teacher in the medicine woman called MaMngwevu In Leopard Warrior John shares a gripping account of his experiences and the wisdom he learned over years of training Here he invites you to discover Powerful insights into the spiritual tradition of the Xhosa lineage of South Africa the tribe of Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu Ubuntu a core concept for recognizing and embracing our deep interconnection with all living things Ancestor medicine how we can learn to honor the blood in our veins the heritage of our soul and our shared humanity Recovering our forgotten knowledge about the wisdom of our dreams the spirits of plants and animals and the power of the unseen world In traditional African healing circles the leopard represents intuition instinct and harmony with nature and the spirit world As John Lockley writes A leopard warrior is a spiritual soldier who mirrors the natural world and directs their gaze inward to answer the call of their spirit With Leopard Warrior he brings us an inspiring call to action showing how we can bridge the barriers that divide us embrace the gifts of our ancestors and reclaim our rightful place as compassionate caretakers of our world Medicine for the Earth Sandra Ingerman, 2001-01-16 From cross cultural legends recounting shamanic cures to the biblical accounts of the parting of the Red Sea and Jesus multiplying the loaves and fishes many spiritual traditions are rich in stories about seemingly inexplicable transformations of the natural world The ancient healing art of transmutation in which toxic substances are transformed into safe substances is mentioned in all the world's great spiritual traditions including Hinduism and Taoism And while many have tapped this body of work to heal the self it has yet to be used to heal our environment For twenty years Sandra Ingerman has studied alternative ways to reverse environmental pollution In this book Ingerman takes us on a remarkable journey through the history of transmutation teaching us how we can use this forgotten technique to change ourselves and our environment She provides us with creative visualizations ceremonies rituals and chants derived from ancient healing practices that produce miraculous scientifically proven results In one dramatic illustration of what can be accomplished when consciousness and awareness fuel our actions Ingerman describes her own success in transforming the nature of chemically polluted water
