Walking With Elephants:

Elephants Under Human Care Paul A. Rees, 2020-09-27 This book draws together for the first time the published research on the behaviour ecology and welfare of elephants living in zoos circuses logging camps and other captive environments in a single comprehensive volume. It takes a multi disciplinary approach considering the work of zoo biologists animal behaviour and welfare scientists veterinarians philosophers zoo educators tourism specialists conservation biologists lawyers and others with a professional interest in elephants. Elephants under Human Care The Behaviour Ecology and Welfare of Elephants in Captivity is a valuable resource for zoo biology and animal welfare researchers. It is also useful for students and zoo professionals and managers looking for a comprehensive guide to current research on captive elephants. Although not intended as a husbandry manual the book discusses some of the elephant welfare standards developed by the Association of Zoos and Aquariums AZA and the British and Irish Association of Zoos and Aquariums BIAZA and their relationship to current knowledge of captive elephants. Includes results of captive studies compared with field studies of wild elephants. Features original images of elephant behaviour as they live and behave under human care. Includes results of the author's original research including many original photographs. Considers future implications of research for the welfare and conservation of elephants both for elephants in captivity and those living in the wild. Elephants Kevin J. Holmes, 2000 Provides an introduction to the elephant covering its physical characteristics habits food and relationship to humans.

Outing, 1918 Elephant Journey Rob Laidlaw, 2015-11-23 In 2013 people across North America were riveted by the story of Toka Thika and Iringa the last three elephants at the zoo in Toronto Ontario. Lonely for a larger herd sick from the cold climate and weak from standing for long days in a too small concrete enclosure the elephants desperately needed a change. The zoo and animal activists agreed that they should be moved to a healthier home but the best option the Performing Animal Welfare Society PAWS sanctuary in distant California seemed like an impossible dream. In Elephant Journey leading activist and award winning author Rob Laidlaw unfolds the journey of how that impossible dream was realized. In clear straightforward prose he describes the elephants experiences on the journey of three days and 4 100 kilometers that brought them to the sanctuary at last. Celebrated illustrator Brian Deines oil paintings based on actual footage of the trip provide an intimate window into the experiences of Toka Thika and Iringa as they braved their long road to a new life. Extensive back matter includes an index photographs and further information about this miraculous Elephant Journey. Outing; Sport, Adventure, Travel, Fiction, 1919 Walking with Elephants Christine Townsend, 2015-03-27 Poetry Outing Magazine Poultney Bigelow, James Henry Worman, Ben James Worman, Caspar Whitney, Albert Britt, 1919
