

6. CONTROLLING YOUR CHAMPIONS

Individual Champion Data

1 Name

Champion's name (leader's name is always in yellow.)

2 Action hand

The hand on the right is called the action hand. It holds weapons and other items used in combat. Each combat item has unique capabilities. Be sure to familiarize yourself with them.

3 Ready hand

The hand on the left is called the ready hand. Among other items, this hand is used to hold ammunition for range weapons like arrows, darts, throwing stars, and stones used with a sling. An arch or crossbow cannot be used unless an arrow is held in the ready hand. In this way, each time an arrow is launched, new ammunition is automatically supplied from the quiver.

4 Physical strength scale

The three bar graphs represent the champion's level of health, stamina, and mana, respectively from the left. When a champion is injured, his health scale decreases. When it reaches zero, he dies. When the stamina reaches the half way mark or lower, a smaller load can be carried. When magic is used, the mana graph decreases.

Note: The color of the scale represents the champion; in other words, it is his personal color. Champions are identified by their color in the Combat and Magic menus.

5 Protective indicator

Using a magic spell or special potion, your champions can be protected from certain attacks. An indicator color shows if a champion is currently protected. The protection status is also displayed as text at the lower left in the individual's data.

Red (Anti-fire): Fire shield (protects from fire and heat from fireballs and similar objects)

Blue (Anti-attack): Attack shield (protects from attack by monsters)

Purple (Anti-spell): Spell shield (protects from spells)
