EBOOK: Suicide - The Ultimate Rejection? N/A Pritchard, 1995-10-16 Suicide The Ultimate Rejection is an interdisciplinary text based on Colin Pritchard s first hand experience both as a practising psychiatric social worker and social researcher It provides an analysis of current research on suicide exploring possible causes and how best to intervene and makes the case for a science based practice art International rates of suicide are examined as the author looks at suicide in a cross cultural context showing how it is differently understood in different ethnic groups reflecting various degrees of stigma He argues for greater recognition of these key differences between cultures and ethnic groups and shows how important they can be to our understanding and intervention Suicide The Ultimate Rejection explores the concepts of prediction and prevention and asks how the current health and community services might work to reduce the number of suicides in line with the targets set by the government's Health of the Nation Different approaches to intervention and treatment are considered with emphasis on those which research has shown to be the most promising Special attention is given to the families of the victim and in the final pages a wider view of suicide which includes euthanasia is explored Using new research Colin Pritchard examines the practical and moral issues raised by euthanasia Suicide will be of interest to students of social work psychiatric nursing health visiting and medicine as well as health professionals and counsellors

Outsourcing Professionals - Guide to Corporate Responsibility Ron Babin, Bill Hefley, 1970-01-01

Corporate Social Responsibility CSR is about managing an organization's impact on society and the environment through its operations products or services and through its interaction with key stakeholders such as employees customers investors and suppliers This book addresses how outsourcing can be used as a powerful tool for advancing critical social economic and environmental issues on a global basis Additionally it examines corporate responsibility policies and practices for outsourcing including identifying and showcasing policies that our membership have adopted creating a framework for companies to model new CR policies and provides multiple resources for readers

Active for several years within the IAOP is the Corporate Social Responsibility CSR Subcommittee of the IAOP Advocacy and Outreach Committee As an outgrowth of the work of the CSR Subcommittee the need for an Outsourcing Professional's Guide to CSR was identified

From both the 2009 and the more recent 2011 IAOP survey on corporate social responsibility in outsourcing it was shown that an overwhelming and consistent 84-85% of organizations would follow IAOP guiding principles for socially responsible outsourcing This stable percentage of organizations looking for guidance bodes well for the development of the IAOP's Outsourcing Professionals Guide to Corporate Social Responsibility

IAOP is the global standard setting organization and advocate for the outsourcing profession With a global community of more than 110,000 members and affiliates worldwide IAOP is the leading professional association for organizations and individuals involved in transforming the world of business through outsourcing offshoring and shared services Our client side members are on average responsible for 60 million per year of outsourcing spending with some overseeing outsourcing programs in the billions of dollars 85% of IAOP members credit IAOP for improved outsourcing outcomes at their organizations and 93% of IAOP's Certified Outsourcing Professionals COPs say that the designation has had a positive impact on their careers
