McGiffen,2001-09-20 New edition of this acclaimed introduction to the EU and its major policy areas

Forging an EU-Identity through popular sports Stephanie Theresa Trapp, 2014-11-21 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2012 in the subject Politics General and Theories of International Politics grade 20 University of the Federal Armed Forces München language English abstract This thesis aims at responding to the question to what extent popular sport can make a contribution to the genesis the implementation and the fostering of a mutually acknowledged and experienced EU identity With sport being the major social movement in Europe unique in its efficiency in bringing people together being a drive for integration bridging any kind of borders and its nonpareil ubiquity its implementation on a European level targeting the European Union people through popular sports will sustainably and remarkably promote the idea of an EU identity As an example for a small but utterly profound project the idea of a European Sports Badge EUSB is presented as a transnationally implementable proposal involving and addressing EU citizens of all nations sexes and ages It should be noted though that sports are certainly not a panacea

The ECJ and Direct Effect. From the Treaty of Rome over Van Gend en Loos to Francovich Paul Unglaub, 2016-07-04 Essay from the year 2015 in the subject Law European and International Law

Intellectual Properties grade 145 Edinburgh Napier University European Law course European Law language English abstract Firstly this essay will provide some general information regarding the development of the EU In this context the concept of supremacy will briefly be overviewed as it is closely related to the doctrine of direct effect Subsequently a definition of both direct effect and direct applicability will be administered Furthermore the relationship between direct effect and the various Community measures will be examined focusing then on Directives for reasons which will be explained afterwards Afterwards the issues concerning vertical and horizontal direct effect in respect of Directives will be investigated Finally the essay will illustrate why and in which cases the doctrines of indirect effect and state liability become applicable The paper will then conclude by answering the question referring to the previous remarks why the European Court of Justice henceforth ECJ introduced the concept of direct effect The Treaty that established the European Economic Community EEC was the Treaty of Rome It became effective on the 1st of January 1958 This moment can be regarded as a milestone in the development of the European Union The treaty had not only the objective to prevent the outbreak of a further war between France and Germany but also to bring the Member States of western Europe together in a closer Union by extending the European integration to include general economic cooperation Over the years the Member States joined various treaties creating the juridical and political framework in order to make the Community capable of cooperating on a broad range of matters The EU organs such as the Commission Council Parliament and the Court were constituted In different shape and occurrence all of the above stated organs are entitled to announce measures Regulations Directives and Decisions which would be targeted to the Member States In the aftermath of this development two main questions arose Namely by what tool would such a measure be exercised towards the Member States The second and closely linked question was which law would prevail in the not unlikely situation of a dispute between the national law of a Member State and the European rule

Analyzing the European Union Policy Process Esther Versluis, Mendeltje van Keulen, Paul Stephenson, 2011 The complex patterns of policy making and implementation in the European Union pose particular challenges for policy analysis. This groundbreaking new text equips readers with a thorough understanding of how EU policy is formulated, implemented and evaluated and with the tools and concepts needed to analyze the EU policy process. The European Union and the United States Steven McGuire, Michael Smith, 2008-05-14 A major text on the changing relationship between the EU and the US in the 21st century which analyses the changing patterns of competition and convergence between the two.

Global Politics Ben Whitham, Andrew Heywood, 2023-03-31 In turbulent global times your study of this subject is increasingly necessary and urgent. Featuring a new chapter on critical theories and revised to take a less Eurocentric approach to concepts and case studies this new edition allows you to tackle global politics important concepts, debates and problems. How can theories help us to understand the politics of a global pandemic? Do we live in a post truth world of fake news and disinformation? Does international aid work? Does the United States remain a global hegemon? What is the Anthropocene and how does it shape global politics? Are global politics constrained by a North South divide? What are the possible futures of global politics and the politics of outer space? Delving into topics as diverse as anarchy, intersectionality, Confucianism and neoconservatism, boxed features give you confidence in political analysis. Focus on learn more about the global colour line or the tragedy of the commons. Key figures discuss the ideas of Hans Morgenthau, Frantz Fanon or bell hooks. Debating argue whether the United Nations are obsolete or whether nuclear weapons promote peace. Global politics in action apply your learning to the migration crisis in Europe or the Arab Spring. Approaches to consider human rights or the Covid 19 pandemic from the perspective of realist, liberal, postcolonial, Marxist, feminist, constructivist and post structuralist theory. Global actors understand the significance of Black Lives Matter, Amnesty International or the International Monetary Fund. Spanning the development of global politics from the early origins of globalization through to the return of multipolarity in the twenty first century this is an essential text for undergraduates studying global politics and international relations.

The European Union Robert Goehlert, Marian Shaaban, 2004 The Making of the European Union Sten Berglund, 2006 Argues that the process of European integration has drifted into serious crisis. French and Dutch voters blatantly rejected the Treaty establishing a Constitution for Europe in the summer of 2005 thus freezing the constitutional process for at least a year.
