This lavishly illustrated book is edited by MFIT's director and chief curator Valerie Steele also the author of the acclaimed Paris Fashion A Cultural History. This new book opens with an important essay on how and why Paris became famous as the international capital of fashion. Steele traces how the mythic aura of Paris fashion was constructed over generations as the splendour of the court at Versailles came to be echoed by the spectacle of the haute couture. Yet Paris has faced repeated challenges from other fashion capitals especially London Milan and New York. Essays by Christopher Breward David Gilbert Grazia d'Annunzio and Antonia Finnane place Paris within a broader global narrative while Sophie Kurkdjian investigates the cultural value of the Parisian couture and Agnès Rocamora explores the online imagery of the chic Parisienne. As The New Yorker recently put it Paris is the most glamorous and competitive of the world's fashion capitals. No other city has been branded Fashion as Paris has. By opening the study of Paris fashion to new approaches this book explains why Paris still retains its position as the world's undisputed fashion capital.
