Science Experiments Goodreads Choice Price:

Choice & Voice Stephanie Fleck, Jolene Heinemann, 2020-08-15 What we allow our students to read tells them which stories we value and which we don't. Give students the power to develop reading lives that will endure beyond school walls. Collaborative Reader Workshop allows for student choice in reading, writing, and speaking, provides an authentic audience for student work, strengthens academic ELA skills, builds a wider school community of readers, and fosters lifelong reading habits. Fleck and Heinemann offer teachers a clear model to establish this interactive reader workshop model in their classrooms as well as tools to get them started. Readers will have a reinvigorated excitement about independent reading and justification for its relevance in the classroom.

Everything and Less Mark McGurl, 2021-10-19 National Book Critics Circle Award Finalist Best Book of Fall Esquire and a Most Anticipated Book of 2021 Lit Hub What Has Happened to Fiction in the Age of Platform Capitalism Since it was first launched in 1994, Amazon has changed the world of literature. The Everything Store has not just transformed how we buy books; it has affected what we buy and even what we read. In Everything and Less, acclaimed critic Mark McGurl explores this new world where writing is no longer categorized as high or lowbrow literature or popular fiction. Charting a course spanning from Henry James to E.L. James, McGurl shows that contemporary writing has less to do with writing per se than with the manner of its distribution. This consumerist logic—if you like this, you might also like—has reorganized the fiction universe so that literary prize winners sit alongside fantasy, romance, fan fiction, and the infinite list of hybrid genres and self-published works. This is an innovation to be cautiously celebrated. Amazon's platform is not just a retail juggernaut but an aesthetic experiment driven by an unseen algorithm, rivaling in the depths of its effects any major cultural shift in history. Here, all fiction is genre fiction, and the niches range from the categories of crime and science fiction to the more refined interests of Adult Baby Diaper Lover erotica. Everything and Less is a hilarious and insightful map of both the commanding heights and sordid depths of fiction past and present that opens up an arresting conversation about why it is we read and write fiction in the first place.

A Course in Behavioral Economics Erik Angner, 2020-11-27 This textbook looks at decisions: how we make them and what makes them good or bad. In this bestselling introduction, Erik Angner clearly lays out the theory of behavioral economics and explains the intuitions behind it. The book offers a rich tapestry of examples, exercises, and problems drawn from fields such as economics, management, marketing, political science, and public policy. It shows how to apply the principles of behavioral economics to improve your life and work and to make the world a better place to boot. No advanced mathematics is required. This is an ideal textbook for students coming to behavioral economics from various fields. It can be used on its own in introductory courses or in combination with other texts at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate levels. It is equally suitable for general readers who have been captivated by popular science books on behavioral economics and want to know more about this intriguing subject. New to this Edition: An updated chapter on behavioral policy and the nudge agenda. Several new sections, for example, on the economics of happiness. Updated examples.

The Social Meaning of Extra

Money Sidonie Naulin, Anne Jourdain, 2019-08-29 Why do ordinary people who used to engage in domestic and leisure activities for free now try to make a profit from them? How and why do people commodify their free time? This book explores the marketization of blogging, cooking, craftwork, gardening, knitting, selling second hand items, sextressing, and more generally the economic use of free time. It outlines how the development of web platforms, the current economic context and post-Fordist values can account for this extension of market and labor. Drawing on a range of interviews, ethnographic observations and quantitative surveys, the contributors question the empowering effects of commodification with a specific focus on how gender and class inequalities affect the social meanings of extra money. Ultimately, the collective findings demonstrate how commodification pervades even the most mundane social activities. This research will be invaluable to scholars and students with a focus on gender and digital sociology, the sociology of work and labour, and the marketization of leisure.

Stop. Think. Invest.: A Behavioral Finance Framework for Optimizing Investment Portfolios Michael Bailey, 2022-01-04 Use the power of behavioral finance to make smarter, better informed decisions through every step of the investing process. In an economy where markets are more unpredictable than ever, emotions can derail the efforts of even the most experienced investors and wreak havoc on portfolio returns. Applying powerful behavioral finance concepts, Stop Think Invest provides a framework for identifying personal biases and avoiding mistakes that can cost big profits. Based on the author's extensive research and 100 key behavioral finance concepts, this guide provides a winning 12-step process you can use to successfully manage your trading and investing for long term success, including: Begin the initial research into a new stock. Create an investment thesis: why are you buying the stock? Trade timing and size: when are you buying and how much? Make the initial purchase. Review the trade: round up or round down? Test your original investment thesis. Stop Think Invest reveals critical information about behavioral finance flaws such as anchoring, confirmation bias, recency bias, and loss aversion. Unlike other behavioral investing guides, Stop Think Invest offers a fully organized and practical approach to applying behavioral finance to everyday investing.
