Young People and Social Media: Contemporary Children's Digital Culture Steve Gennaro, Blair Miller, 2021-10-05
Young People and Social Media Contemporary Children's Digital Culture explores the practices relationships consequences benefits and outcomes of children's experiences with on and through social media by bringing together a vast array of different ideas about childhood youth and young people's lives These ideas are drawn from scholars working in a variety of disciplines and rather than just describing the social construction of childhood or an understanding of children's lives this collection seeks to encapsulate not only how young people exist on social media but also how their physical lives are impacted by their presence on social media One of the aims of this volume in exploring youth interaction with social media is to unpack the structuring of digital technologies in terms of how young people access the technology to use it as a means of communication a platform for identification and a tool for participation in their larger social world During longstanding and continued experience in the broad field of youth and digital culture we have come to realize that not only is the subject matter increasing in importance at an immeasurable rate but the amount of textbooks and or edited collections has lagged behind considerably There is a lack of sources that fully encapsulate the canon of texts for the discipline or the rich diversity and complexity of overlapping subject areas that create the fertile ground for studying young people's lives and culture The editors hope that this text will occupy some of that void and act as a catalyst for future interdisciplinary collections Young People and Social Media Contemporary Children's Digital Culture will appeal to undergraduate students studying Child and Youth Studies and given the interdisciplinary nature of the collection scholars researchers and students at all levels working in anthropology psychology sociology communication studies cultural studies media studies education and human rights among others Practitioners in these fields will also find this collection of particular interest

#artselfie Simon Castets,DIS (Organization),2014 artselfie opens with an incisive remark by Douglas Coupland who warns us that Selfies are mirrors we can freeze Selfies allow us to see how others look at themselves in a mirror making their modeling face when nobody s around except these days everybody s around everywhere all the time artselfie emerged in 2012 right as the recent photographic phenomenon known as the selfie reached it s tipping point It was subsequently activated by New York based collective DIS as an aggregated mode of art tourism and documentation These selfies and their dialogue with art are an opportunity to revisit fundamental questions such as if art is a mirror what happens when we place ourselves between it and the camera The traditional trajectory from photographer to subject via the camera has been subverted and with it the nature of images and our perception of them The artselfie makes every participant both protagonist and collaborator consumer and producer Including an introduction by Douglas Coupland author of Generation X Tales for an Accelerated Culture and ruthless observer of contemporary society and a discussion between Simon Castets director of the Swiss Institute in New York and co founder of the 89 project and DIS artselfie allows us to experience how significant and seductive this viral phenomenon is
