My love is poison His kiss is mine The first time he saw me I was shattered glass and he was a shadow If I had stayed he would have just faded away It's strange how easy it is to tell our stories to a stranger's eyes The truth about Connor Stratford and I had always been a sad tale Over ten years of chasing tears lies vows and leaving Two people who never loved each other at the same time but couldn't let each other go Now here I was telling our story over drinks midday in an airport bar with my old diary clutched in my hand Telling some version of our story anyway I left him once with no goodbye Now I was returning home to give him what he needed to move on It's important It's what you're thinking I knew what his message meant sent in the middle of the night after I woke from a fever dream He was finally ready and so was I I just needed to finally give him the kiss he begged for The one that meant goodbye

Fractions of seconds can do lots of damage One decision can ruin lives A blink can be tragic And loving a Hollister can hurt like hell I would know They say the average person can hold their breath under water for two full minutes when pushed to the extremes Will Hollister has been holding his for years The oldest of two elite swimming brothers Will was always a dominant force in the water But in life he preferred to let his younger brother Evan be the one to shine Evan got the girl and Will he got to bury all of the secrets A brother's burden the weight of it all nearly left him to drown The daughter of two Olympians my path was set the day my fingertips first touched water My future was as crystal clear as the lane I dominated in the pool swim hard win big love a Hollister My life with Evan burned bright He gave me arms to come home to and a smile that fooled the world into believing everything was perfect But it was Will who pushed me Will who really knew me And when all of the pieces fell it was Will who started to pick them up In the end the only thing that matters are those few precious seconds and what we decide to do while we still have them in our grasp
