Helping people from workless households into work Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2007-07-19 A workless household is defined as a household that includes at least one person of working age men aged 16 64 years and women aged 16 59 years where no one in the household aged 16 or over is in employment Currently there are about three million households containing 1 7 million children who still have no one in work Evidence suggests that many adults in workless households would like to work but that they face multiple barriers to work such as low skills disability a lack of affordable and flexible childcare or caring responsibilities and may have been on benefits for a long time The NAO report examines the effectiveness of Department for Work and Pensions employment programmes aimed at workless households in England focusing on two programmes the New Deal for Lone Parents and the New Deal for Partners The report finds that these programmes are making a difference for those who take part but more needs to be done to reach out to workless households and to increase awareness of the support available and help people to prepare for and find work Diplomatic and Consular Reports Great Britain.
