Taxation in a Global Digital Economy Ina Kerschner,Maryte Somare,2017-10-04 Time to discuss anti BEPS measures around digitalization In the course of the BEPS Report on Action 1 it was concluded that there was no instantaneous need for specific rules to address base erosion and profit shifting BEPS made possible by the digitalization of enterprises and new digital businesses At the same time it was acknowledged that general measures may not suffice with the assessment of results to begin in 2020 While awaiting possible fundamental reforms of the tax framework it is time to discuss anti BEPS measures bearing in mind the peculiar features of the digital economy such as increased mobility no need for physical presence and dematerialization The Book focuses on five key areas of interest International Tax Policy Tax Treaty Law Transfer Pricing Indirect Taxation Issues EU Law Taxation in a Global Digital Economy analyses the issues and addresses the five key areas of interest from various viewpoints International Tax Havens Guide, 2002 The Investment Decisions of Multinational Enterprises A. E. Safarian, 1987 Company Taxation in the Internal Market European Commission, 2002 Analysis of problems in the field of company taxation in the Internal Market the obstacles to cross border economic activity and their possible remedies This study the major source document for the European Commission s policy statement on company taxation COM 2001 582 also considers the possibilities for a reform of company taxation at EU level which would aim at providing companies with a single consolidated tax base for their EU wide activities Financial Management for the Multinational Firm Fuad Abdul-Kader Abdullah, 1987 Includes index Towards a Neutral Formulary Apportionment System in Regional Integration Shu-Chien Chen, 2023-03-09 International tax regimes and practices are heavily criticized for failing to fairly levy corporate tax on giant multinational taxpayers in the current globalized and digitalized world This important and far seeing book demonstrates how formulary apportionment FA an approach by which a multinational corporation pays each jurisdiction s corporate tax based on the share of its worldwide income allocated to that jurisdiction can achieve the much sought goal of aligning value creation and taxation The author through an intensive analysis of the European Union s EU s Common Consolidated Corporate Tax Base CCCTB Directive Proposal s and comparison to the United States US s formulary apportionment experience shows how the perceived problems with an FA system can be overcome and lays out the necessary elements for its feasibility With detailed attention to the debates around formulary apportionment and its theoretical foundations the book provides a blueprint for rebuilding the normative framework for the EU s tax reform by clearly analysing the implications of the following and more theorising public benefits to be represented by taxation reorganising different economic theories about tax neutrality and tax justice advancing the comparative legal research methodology to analyse law reform by combining the functional approach and the problem solving approach designing the logical formulary apportionment system for digital economy ensuring the removal of the incentive for multinationals to shift reported income to low tax locations reducing the tax system s complexity and the administrative burden it imposes on firms eliminating transfer pricing complexity for intra firm transactions achieving equal weighting of the sales factor the labour factor and the asset factor in the formula application of destination based rule for attributing the sales factor and replacing the traditional permanent establishment nexus with a factor presence nexus The presentation incorporates extensive comparison between the EU's formulary apportionment tax reform option and FA systems existing in the United States US at state level including reference to relevant US case law and legislation As a possible option to address the problem of base erosion and profit shifting BEPS formulary apportionment is gaining increasing acceptance and attention This book will prove invaluable to taxation authorities tax practitioners and scholars in its deeply informed and systematic guidance on good practices and prevention of problematic experiences in establishing and implementing an effective and market neutral FA system
