What/where transformed Europe in the early modern age?

Introduction:

What has happened in the last 500 years? Have we lost these questions?

How did 16th century Europe revolutionize the 21st century world?

Answer: Modern European history starts around 1500, the year that coincided with the invention of the printing press, which revolutionized society, politics, and the way the world was perceived.

What are some of the ways the world has been transformed?

Answer: The year 1500 was a turning point in European history, marking the beginning of modernity. It was a time of great change, including the discovery of the Americas, the Renaissance, and the Reformation. These events shaped the world we live in today.

What is the central theme of the early modern period in European history?

Answer: The central theme of the early modern period is the rise of the nation-state and the emergence of modern political thought. This period saw the decline of the Holy Roman Empire and the rise of new powers like France and England.

Section 1 – The Renaissance

1. What was the Renaissance and why did it last for so long?

Answer: The Renaissance was a cultural movement that began in Italy in the 14th century and spread throughout Europe. It was a time of great artistic and intellectual achievement, marked by the works of artists like Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo.

2. What were some of the key figures of the Renaissance?

Answer: Some of the key figures of the Renaissance include Leonardo da Vinci, Michelangelo, and Raphael. These artists were pioneers in their fields, creating works that are still admired today.

3. What were some of the key events of the Renaissance?

Answer: Some of the key events of the Renaissance include the invention of the printing press, the discovery of the Americas, and the Reformation. These events shaped the course of European history.

4. What were some of the key ideas of the Renaissance?

Answer: Some of the key ideas of the Renaissance include humanism, which emphasized the value of the individual, and the idea of progress, which believed that the world could be improved through human effort.
