Mothering on the Edge Brooke Richardson, 2022-08-13 This book brings critical scholarly attention to the systematic positioning and subjective experiences of mothers involved in child protection processes in risk based child protection systems Parton Thorpe and Wattam Connolley Swift and Callahan While mothers are typically the primary focus of child protection prevention and investigations Azzopardi et al Fallon et al Swift and Callahan their gendered experiences challenges and triumphs are seldom given space in the academic literature practice and or public spaces to be seen or heard Chapters in this volume build on existing literature to illustrate the structural positioning and or lived experiences of mothers who come into contact with child protection for a variety of reasons substance use positive HIV status child injury fetal alcohol syndrome colonial assessment methodologies young age incarceration childbirth and intimate partner violence This book offers three unique contributions to existing literature on mothering in child protection First it creates space for mothers involved in child protection to have their voices heard Second it acknowledges the centrality of mothers subjective experience in keeping children safe Finally it challenges dominant often dehumanizing narratives of mothers involved in child protection through providing a more nuanced understanding of their lives Ultimately this anthology calls for a fundamental rethinking of how mothers involved in child protection proceedings are conceptualized in child protection research policy and practice It is recommended that mothers voices must be central to humanely reforming child protection systems

Seeking Justice in Child Sexual Abuse Karen M. Staller, Kathleen Coulborn Faller, 2010 St Mary County is a small rural midwestern enclave with a unique approach to handling accusations of child sexual abuse Hoping to spare children the trauma of lengthy court appearances and probing interrogations St Mary s professionals strive to obtain confessions from accused sex offenders rather than ask the victim to bear the burden of proof Treating this county as a critical case study scholars from a variety of fields come together to analyze this community s unique approach They address relevant case law innovative treatments for both victim and offender and the social history of child sexual abuse as a national policy concern They cover legal burdens and scientific methods prosecutors and protocol the interrogation of victims and suspects the use of expert witnesses defense strategies and practice wisdom in videotaping In addition they examine the unfolding drama of a single legal case from incidence to conviction The result is a fascinating dialogue that confronts the unique complexities of child sexual abuse for readers on all sides of the issue Introducing a model that makes enormous headway in the pursuit of justice fairness and trauma treatment this interdisciplinary text is an indispensable tool for all communities seeking redress
