Finch,Martin Gill,Anthony Johnson,Iris Lindahl-Raittila,Inna Lindgren,Tuija Virtanen,Brita Wårvik,2009-12-10 Since the 1980s Roger D Sell s literary criticism has striven to take account of the often conflicting approaches available without compromising the human importance of the literary work either in terms of its creation or its reception Sell s theory of literature draws strength from the interface between literary studies and linguistics and is grounded on the argument that literary making is a primary communicational act between human beings Other critics have found Sell s work inspirational This book both responds to Sell s ideas and demonstrates the multifaceted potential of his work Aware of his trajectory through Literary Pragmatic Humanizing and Mediating criticism Humane Readings offers a series of original and focused studies which demonstrate the power provenance and importance of Sell s approach Ranging in subject matter from the Early Modern Period to the present a reconfiguration of literary criticism by contemporary readers and practitioners is urged here Case studies are presented on a range of poetic novelistic dramatic and children s works Each illuminates different aspects of Sell s critical thought div Genre Analysis of Online Encyclopedias Anna Tereszkievicz,2013-05 The book is the first complete discussion of the genre of online encyclopedias The first part of the book preceded by a theoretical introduction into the concept of webgenres gives a detailed overview of the types of encyclopedic websites presenting the characteristics of their content form and functionality The second part of the publication concerns Wikipedia the most popular online encyclopedia The presentation of the structure of the portal is followed by an in depth discussion of Wikipedia discourse features describing the most conspicuous properties of the stylistic layer of this encyclopedia The value of the book is additionally enhanced by many illustrations reproducing the analyzed websites Qualitative Discourse Analysis in the Social Sciences Ruth Wodak, Micha? Krzy?anowski, 2008-06-01 What can language tell us about society Looking at a range of genres from political speeches to internet chat this book shows how qualitative methods are used to analyse discourses throughout the social sciences The practical problems of designing and conducting discourse based research are solved in this key resource for all social scientists Encyclopedia of Language & Linguistics E. K. Brown, 2006 Constructing Professional Discourse Concepción Orna-Montesinos, 2012 This book explores the fascinating role that language plays in the construction of non verbal objects by mapping out the ontological meaning of the specialised concepts and the domain specific knowledge embedded in them In doing so it provides a comprehensive linguistic insight into the discourse of professional domain specific communities and hence into the communication practices and procedures of those communities In this respect the book offers a response to the claims made by many of the most influential applied linguists today such as Vijay Bhatia 1993 2004 John Swales 1990 2004 or Ken Hyland 2002 among others who have consistently defended the need for applied linguistic research into the textual generic and social perspectives on the under researched interrelatedness of the discursal and professional practices of a discipline Specifically this book provides readers with an integrative multi perspective approach to the study of professional domain specific discourses While it mainly draws on the tenets of genre theory and discourse semantics it also nurtures from the theoretical and empirical foundations of applied linguistics cognitive linguistics corpus linguistics and ontological engineering The book starts from the analysis of domain specific texts as final written products with specific lexico grammatical semantic and rhetorical features to later enquire into the written products as textual artefacts closely linked to the social context of production and interpretation of the text This integrative approach provides fresh new insights into the way the processes of writing are affected by the community specific institutional and socio historical circumstances in which domain specific texts are produced Language, Culture and Identity in Applied Linguistics British Association for Applied Linguistics. Meeting, Richard Kiely, 2006-12 Language Culture and Identity is a collection of papers from the BAAL Annual Conference at the University of Bristol 2005 The thirteen papers by researchers from Britain and across Europe represent a range of research orientations within Applied Linguistics which connect in different ways with issues in culture and identity Two plenary addresses from the conference by Roz Ivani and Srikant Sarangi explore the themes of identity and culture in contexts of learning and of work Papers addressing language planning and policy issues present recent analyses of francophone identity in Canada and Sami identity in Finland The issues of culture and identity in writing are explored in different papers from the perspective of identity construction in academic writing discipline cultures in higher education contexts the consequences of these for interdisciplinary writers and how writers construct audience identity though the linguistic choices they make Empirical studies of language learning and teaching are also represented with papers on Processing Instruction and Intercultural Pragmatics The themes of identity and culture in these papers connect a range of sub disciplines within Applied Linguistics and also connect knowledge building in Applied Linguistics with pervasive themes in research across the social sciences into the ways people as individuals and in communities understand shape and represent their experiences of learning and work Complexity and Coherence Josef Schmied, Christoph Haase, Renata Povolná, 2007 Academic Writing and Genre Ian Bruce, 2008-04-07 The focus of this book is the use of genre based approaches to teaching academic writing Genre based courses enable second language learners to integrate their linguistic organisational and contextual knowledge in a variety of different tasks The book reviews pedagogical approaches to genre through English for Specific Purposes and Systemic Functional Linguistics to present a synthesis of the current research being undertaken in the field From this theoretical base Ian Bruce proposes a new model of genre based approaches to academic writing and analyses the ways in which this can be implemented in pedagogy and curriculum design Academic Writing and Genre is a cutting edge monograph which will be essential reading for researchers in applied linguistics Text & Talk Srikant Sarangi, 2007 Brno Studies in English, 2005 Poznań Studies in Contemporary Linguistics, 2005 The Face of New Testament Studies Scot McKnight, Grant R. Osborne, 2004 Since 1970 there have been far reaching changes in the way the New Testament is studied This text provides detailed overviews on what has been happening in this area over the last 30 years Coptic Studies on the Threshold of a New Millennium Mat Immerzeel, Jacques van der Vliet, 2004 The congresses organised every four years under the auspices of the International Association for Coptic Studies IACS are the main forum for scholars of Egyptian Christian life and culture through the ages The proceedings of the seventh congress which was held in Leiden in 2000 comprise ninety nine papers reflecting the growth and diversification of Coptic studies worldwide They include valuable and sometimes groundbreaking essays in topics of for example Coptic language literature monasticism and archaeology A particularly noteworthy and important feature of the present proceedings are the state of the art reviews of current trends and achievements in the main fields of the discipline written by invited experts and accompanied by extensive bibliographies These review articles cover aspects of Coptic studies as diverse as papyrology gnosticism liturgy Copto Arabic and art history They turn these two volumes into real reference books indispensable for every scholar of early Church history late antiquity and Near Eastern Christianity Translation Research and Interpreting Research Christina Schäffner, 2004 This volume deals with Translation Research TR and Interpreting Research IR In the main contribution Daniel Gile from the Universit Lumi re Lyon 2 France explores kinship differences and prospects for partnership between the two He gives an overview of the history of research into translation and interpreting explores commonalities and reviews differences between translation and interpreting and discusses implications for research He comments critically on the foci and paradigms in both TR and IR and on the epistemological and methodological problems they raise He concludes by saying that Translation and Interpreting Studies are gaining both social cohesion and some weight as an academic identity The contributions by Jan Cambridge Andrew Chesterman Janet Fraser Yves Gambier Moira Inghilleri Zuzana Jettmarov Ian Mason Mariana Orozco Franz P chhacker and Miriam Shlesinger focus on translator and interpreter behaviour research methodology types of research disciplinary autonomy and interdisciplinarity theory and practice research training and institutional constraints There is general agreement that in view of commonalities and differences between translation and interpreting each step in the investigation of one can contribute valuable input towards investigation of the other
