Twayne's Rulers and Statesmen of the World Series, 1972 Try Not to Suck Bill Chastain, Jesse Rogers, Ben

Zobrist, 2018-04-01 With his irreverent personality laid back approach and penchant for the unexpected Joe Maddon is a singular presence among Major League Baseball managers. Whether he's bringing clowns and live bear cubs to spring training or leading the Chicago Cubs to their first World Series victory in 108 years, Maddon is always one to watch. In Try Not to Suck, ESPN's Jesse Rogers and MLB.com's Bill Chastain fully explore Maddon's life and career, delving behind the scenes and dissecting that mystique which makes Maddon so popular with players and analysts alike. Packed with insight, anecdotes, and little known facts, this is the definitive account of the curse breaker and trailblazer at the helm of the Cubs' new era.

What Americans Really Want...Really Dr. Frank Luntz, 2009-09-15 No one in America has done more observing of more people than Dr. Frank I. Luntz. From Bill O'Reilly to Bill Maher, America's leading pundits, prognosticators, and CEOs turn to Luntz to explain the present and to predict the future. With all the upheavals of recent events, the plans and priorities of the American people have undergone a seismic shift. Businesses everywhere are trying to market products and services during this turbulent time, but only one man really understands the needs and desires of the New America. From restaurant booths to voting booths, Luntz has watched and assessed our private habits, our public interests, and our hopes and fears. What are the five things Americans want the most? What do they really want in their daily lives? In their jobs? From their government? For their families? And how does understanding what Americans want allow businesses to thrive? Luntz disassembles the preconceived notions we have about one another and lays all the pieces of the American condition out in front of us openly and honestly, then puts the pieces back together in a way that reflects the society in which we live. What Americans Really Want...Really is a real if sometimes scary discussion of Americans' secret hopes, fears, wants, and needs. The research in this book represents a decade of face-to-face interviews with twenty-five thousand people and telephone polls with one million more, as well as the exclusive first-ever What Americans Really Want survey. What Luntz offers is a glimpse into the American psyche, along with analysis that will rock assumptions and right business judgment. He proves that success in virtually any profession demands that we either understand what Americans really want or suffer the consequences. Praise for Frank Luntz: When Frank Luntz invites you to talk to his focus group, you talk to his focus group. President Barack Obama spoken on June 28, 2007, to a PBS-sponsored focus group following the Democratic presidential debate at Howard University. Frank Luntz understands the American people better than anyone I know. Newt Gingrich, former Speaker of the House. The Nostradamus of pollsters. Sir David Frost, America's top companies listen to Frank Luntz because he understands what customers want and what employees think. He has a keen sense of the American psyche and an outstanding command of language that empowers and persuades. Thomas J. Donohue, President, CEO, U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Inventing Baseball Heroes Amber

Roessner,2014-06-09 In Inventing Baseball Heroes Amber Roessner examines herocrafting in sports journalism through an incisive analysis of the work surrounding two of baseball's most enduring personalities Detroit Tigers outfielder Ty Cobb and New York Giants pitcher Christy Mathewson While other scholars have demonstrated that the mythmakers of the Golden Age of Sports Writing 1920-1930 manufactured heroes out of baseball players for the mainstream media Roessner probes further with a penetrating look at how sportswriters compromised emerging professional standards of journalism as they crafted heroic tales that sought to teach American boys how to be successful players in the game of life Cobb and Mathewson respectively stereotyped as the game's sinner and saint helped shape their public images in the mainstream press through their relationship with four of the most prominent sports journalists of the time Grantland Rice F C Lane Ring Lardner and John N Wheeler Roessner traces the interactions between the athletes and the reporters delving into newsgathering strategies as well as rapport building techniques and ultimately revealing an inherent tension in objective sports reporting in the era Inventing Baseball Heroes will be of interest to scholars of American history sports history cultural studies and communication Its interdisciplinary approach provides a broad understanding of the role sports journalists played in the production of American heroes
