Visual Experiences in Cinquecento Theatrical Spaces Jimena Berzal de Dios,2019-01-02 Through an interdisciplinary examination of sixteenth century theatre Visual Experiences in Cinquecento Theatrical Spaces studies the performative aspects of the early modern stage paying special attention to the overlooked complexities of audience experience Examining the period's philosophical and aesthetic ideas about space place and setting the book shows how artists consciously moved away from traditional representations of real spaces on stage instead providing their audiences with more imaginative and collaborative engagements that were untethered by strict definitions of naturalism In this way the book breaks with traditional interpretations of early modern staging techniques arguing that the goal of artists in this period was not to cater to a single privileged viewer through the creation of a naturalistically unified stage but instead to offer up a complex multimedia experience that would captivate a diverse assembly of theatre goers Literature and the Senses Annette Kern-Stähler, Elizabeth Robertson, 2023-07-06 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence. It is free to read at Oxford Academic and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations. Literature and the Senses critically probes the role of literature in capturing and scrutinizing sensory perception. Organized around the five traditional senses followed by a section on multisensoriality, the collection facilitates a dialogue between scholars working on literature written from the Middle Ages to the present day. The contributors engage with a variety of theorists from Maurice Merleau Ponty to Michel Serres to Jean Luc Nancy to foreground the distinctive means by which literary texts engage with open up or make uncertain dominant views of the nature of perception. Considering the ways in which literary texts intersect with and diverge from scientific epistemological and philosophical perspectives, these essays explore a wide variety of literary moments of sensation including the interspecies exchange of a look between a swan and a young Indigenous Australian girl, the sound of bees as captured in an early modern poem, the noxious smell of the Great Stink that recurs in the Victorian novel, the taste of an eggplant registered in a poetic performance, tactile gestures in medieval romance and the representation of a world in which the interdependence of human beings with the purple hibiscus plant is experienced through all five senses. The collection builds upon and breaks new ground in the field of sensory studies focusing on what makes literature especially suitable to engaging with, contributing to and challenging our perennial understandings of the senses. Meyer Schapiro's Critical Debates C. Oliver O'Donnell, 2019-10-14

Described in the New York Times as the greatest art historian America ever produced, Meyer Schapiro was both a close friend to many of the famous artists of his generation and a scholar who engaged in public debate with some of the major intellectuals of his time. This volume synthesizes his prolific career for the first time, demonstrating how Schapiro worked from the nexus of artistic and intellectual practice to confront some of the twentieth century's most abiding questions. Schapiro was renowned for pioneering interdisciplinary approaches to interpreting visual art. His lengthy formal analyses in the 1920s, Marxist interpretations in the 1930s, psychoanalytic critiques in the 1950s and 1960s and semiotic explorations in the 1970s all helped open new avenues for inquiry. Based on archival research, C. Oliver O'Donnell's study is structured chronologically around eight defining debates in which Schapiro participated, including his dispute with Isaiah Berlin over the life and writing of Bernard Berenson, Schapiro's critique of Martin Heidegger's ekphrastic commentary on Van Gogh and his confrontation with Claude Lévi-Strauss over the applicability of mathematics to the interpretation of visual art. O'Donnell's thoughtful analysis of these intellectual exchanges not only traces Schapiro's philosophical evolution but also relates them to the development of art history as a discipline, to central tensions of artistic modernism and to modern intellectual history as a whole. Comprehensive and thought provoking, this study of Schapiro's career pieces together the separate strands of his work into one cohesive picture In doing so it reveals Schapiro's substantial impact on the field of art history and on twentieth century modernism Urban Tomographies Martin H.

Whimsical Theatres of Language Alexis Tadié,2003 This study addresses the intricate links between oral culture and literate culture in the eighteenth century Tadi traces how perceptions and representations of language move from a dominance of the spoken word to a dominance of the written word and this is echoed in the order of the five chapters on conversation gesture theatre fiction and print Tadi offers a reading of Sterne s works arguing that the use of language lies at the centre of Sterne s art he approaches the historical dimension of the texts in the context of eighteenth century theories of language He brings into focus the heterogeneity of Sterne s texts and he demonstrates how Sterne s awareness for the variations of language links up with his interest in the form of the book and with the use of all the potentialities of print The study broaches the issue of the rise of the novel in the eighteenth century it refuses the idea of progress or of slow emergence of the novel in the eighteenth century which would lead progressively from Defoe to the Fielding Richardson debate to a possible view of Sterne as the great ironist of the form of the novel Tadi asserts that Sterne s writings do not simply address the nature of the novel but they engage with all the forms of language representation made available by the culture of the age
