Super Normal Sensations Of The Ordinary:

Super Normal □□□□, Jasper Morrison, 2007 Jasper Morrison and Naoto Fukasawa have compiled 204 everyday objects in search of super normal design alongside examples of anonymous design there are design classics like by Jacobsen Rams Bill or Noguchi With products by Newson Grcic the Azumis and the Bouroullecs it also represents the generation to which Morrison and Fukasawa belong The phenomenon of the super normal is located beyond space and time and point to a future that has long since begun The super normal is lying exposed before us it is real and available Fukasawa and Morrison make it visible for us As Seen Zoë Ryan, 2017-01-01 Exhibitions have long played a crucial role in defining disciplinary histories

This fascinating volume examines the impact of eleven groundbreaking architecture and design exhibitions held between 1956 and 2006 revealing how they have shaped contemporary understanding and practice of these fields Featuring written and photographic descriptions of the shows and illuminating essays from noted curators scholars critics designers and theorists As Seen Exhibitions that Made Architecture and Design History explores the multifaceted ways in which exhibitions have reflected on contemporary dilemmas and opened up new processes and ways of working Providing a fresh perspective on some of the most important exhibitions of the 20th century from America Europe and Japan including This Is Tomorrow Expo 70 and Massive Change this book offers a new framework for thinking about how exhibitions can function as a transformative force in the field of architecture and design Manifestos for the Future of Critical Disability Studies

Katie Ellis, Rosemarie Garland-Thomson, Mike Kent, Rachel Robertson, 2018-10-03 This collection identifies the key tensions and conflicts being debated within the field of critical disability studies and provides both an outline of the field in its current form and offers manifestos for its future direction Traversing a number of disciplines from science and technology studies to maternal studies the collection offers a transdisciplinary vision for the future of critical disability studies Some common thematic concerns emerge across the book such as digital futures the usefulness of anger creativity family as disability allies intersectionality ethics eugenics accessibility and interdisciplinarity However the contributors who write as either disabled people or allies do not proceed from a singular approach to disability often reflecting different or even opposing positions on these issues Containing contributions from established and new voices in disability studies outlining their own manifesto for the future of the field this book will be of interest to all scholars and students working within the fields of disability studies cultural studies sociology law history and education The concerns introduced here are further explored in its sister volume Interdisciplinary approaches to disability looking towards the future ICONOCLASTIA Josep Llus; , ETH Mateo, 2022-03-18

In the past buildings and other constructions representing singular moments for the community were called monuments Their origin was expression of power celebration of ritual or collective affirmation In the contemporary world a project that aspires to be exceptionally expressive is commonly called an icon The publication begins with a series of general texts on themes that vary but all share a common critical look at the role of the iconic on the recent architecture scene Some of the texts were produced at a seminal symposium organized by the Chair of Professor Josep Lluís Mateo
