Supermen and the Coming Utopia - Book Three Robert B. Corbett, 2015-12-01 I wrote in one of my books that over 10 000 churches have closed their doors since the year 2000 If America is going to survive it must have a major revival that will flow out far beyond its national borders God's people had better get back on their knees in their hearts and seek his forgiveness Sports and other means of entertainment must be comparatively marginalized but not abandoned The Progressive looks to the federal government to solve his problems The secular conservative believes that hard work individual responsibility freedom and our constitution can save him but God's people realize that we as a people will not make it unless we get back to the Bible There are a lot of people I could quote voices from the past but I will forgo the effort I am tired of so called conservatives quoting Ronald Reagan or any other national hero they feel compelled to quote What Reagan would do is not important but what Jesus wants you to do is Reagan can't save us he is dead I serve a risen Saviour who tells me and the rest of you out there that have a relationship with him that all power is given to him in Heaven and Earth The ultimate solution to our problem is not another civil war or the Republican Party getting more votes and the upper hand in our seats of power but in the original mandate Christ announced before leaving this Earth Go ye therefore and make disciples teaching them all things whatsoever I have commanded you If we want to transform our society back to the Christian society we once enjoyed we must obey the Lord's command as individuals as well as the collective organic body of Christ We do have the power to make a difference Our Lord has already won the battle our job is to be salt and light in our society and the world until he comes back
