Funny childhood biographies and cartoon style illustrations take us inside the lives of 15 scientific legends when they were kids from Albert Einstein and Jane Goodall to Marie Curie and Neil DeGrasse Tyson. Every great scientist started out as a kid. Before their experiments, inventions, and discoveries that changed the world, the world's most celebrated scientists had regular kid problems just like you. Stephen Hawking hated school and preferred to spend his free time building model airplanes, inventing board games, and even building his own computer. Jane Goodall got in trouble for bringing worms and snails into her house. And Neil deGrasse Tyson had to start a dog walking business to save up money to buy a telescope. Kid Scientists tells the stories of a diverse and inclusive group including Temple Grandin, Nikola Tesla, Ada Lovelace, Benjamin Franklin, Isaac Newton, Rosalind Franklin, Sally Ride, Rachel Carson, George Washington Carver, Vera Rubin. With whimsical

Space Administration,1994* Executive Thinking Kevin Baize OD,Morris Graham PhD,2011-02-18 Life is about how much we think Thinking is about how much mental capacity we possess Capacity in addition to our abilities and conscientiousness is about how much we can process combinations of verbal height quantitative width and spatial depth with decisiveness direction and speed No matter where we go or what we do as executives we take our thinking with us That may spoil everything because to a great extent we do and accomplish what we think about Our thoughts mold our aspirations attitudes and accomplishments during our life In other words our careers and lives are influenced more by the power of our thoughts than anything else The bad news is that most of us never fully use our mental capacities and never achieve our potential The good news is that neural technologies are now available to transform our thinking into the higher realms of brilliance Developing the spatial capacity to think higher wider and deeper means breaking away from the effects of years of flat thinking or educational backgrounds that stifles creative innovative potential Expand your mental agility through a development of higher order processes and discover a whole new world mentally in Executive Thinking Science

Heterodoxy ,1995 Arts, Sciences, and Economics Tönu Puu,2006-08-26 This book has a rather long winding history It is not like anything else the present author ever wrote as all the rest is theoretical economics in a distinctively mathematical dress For the emergence of the following pages there are several people cept the author who are to have the credit or perhaps the blame Around 1985 the department of economics at Ume University in the North of Sweden was visited by Professor William Hendon Editor of the Journal of Cultural Economics In my capacity of chairman of the department I invited him to a social lunch We soon realized that we did not have much in terms of common research interests to talk about However somebody at the partment later informed him that I also used to make copies of historical musical instruments during my free hours so once back in the US he asked me to write an article for his journal comparing the making of mathematical models to the making musical instruments I thought the idea was absolutely crazy but could not help start thinking about it now and then so five years later I actually contributed a paper called On the unity of the arts crafts and sciences     Science Fiction and Fantasy Reference Index, 1985-1991 Halbert W.
