Surrender How British Industry Gave Up The Ghost 1952 201:

Surrender Nicholas Comfort,2012-02-23 British industry at the start of the New Elizabethan Age was a world leader The first British jet airliner was taking to the skies the first nuclear power station was under construction at Calder Hall and British firms were pioneering the computer Our shipyards reigned almost supreme and from Britain s factories came cars lorries buses heavy machinery aircraft and locomotives exported all over the world Sixty years on many of these industries and millions of jobs have disappeared while competitors have flourished Much of what remains is under foreign ownership Britain has lost many export markets and essential goods have to be imported How did all this happen Britain s loss of competitiveness has traditionally been blamed on outdated working practices failure to invest and modernise poor management bloody minded unions the loss of Empire and the ability of post war Germany and Japan to rebuild from scratch All this is true but the picture is far more complex The role of Whitehall and successive governments Britain s relationship with Europe corporate greed misjudgement and even suicide and sheer bad luck all play a part In Surrender Nicholas Comfort revisits the past six decades and identifies some of the factors behind the greatest mass extinction since the dinosaurs Life Henry R. Luce,1951-07 Surrender N. A. Comfort,2012-12-10 British factories are no longer the hive of production seen 60 years ago Instead our British household names thrive under foreign ownership and most of our export markets have been lost Nicholas Comfort provides an exacting account of Britain s industrial problems and shows how we might rectify these ills British Industry Confederation of British Industry,1974
