We Had Everything But Money:

We Had Everything But Money Deb Mulvey, Rh Value Publishing, 1995 A collection of priceless memories of the Great Depression 'We Had Everything But Money' Deb Mulvey, 1992 We Had Everything But Money, 1995 We Had Everything But Money Deb Mulvey, Clancy Strock, 2008 We had everything but money, 1995 Love and sharing saw America's families through the Great Depression These are the memories of those who lived through it Good Old Days We Survived--and Thrived Ken Tate, Janice Tate, 2003 When things go wrong as they sometimes will When the road you're trudging seems all uphill When the funds are low and the debts are high And you want to smile but you have to sigh When care is pressing you down a bit Rest if you must but don't you quit Times were tough but we made it through These were times when people depended on one another when they learned to take nothing for granted and to recognize those things that were more important than the luxuries money could buy Little Giant Carl Albert, 1999-09-01 At age six Carl Albert knew he wanted to serve in the United States Congress In 1947 he realized his dream when he was elected to serve in the House of Representatives alongside John Kennedy Lyndon Johnson and Richard Nixon In Little Giant Albert relates the story of his life in Oklahoma and his road to Congress where after eight years of service he joined its leadership and shaped the legislation known as Kennedy's New Frontier and Johnson's Great Society In 1971 he began his own Speakership six years later when it ended Congress had been reshaped and had weathered the constitutional crisis of Richard Nixon's Imperial Presidency Ngā Mōrehu: The Survivors (2nd Edition) Judith Binney, 2013-06-11 For much of women's history memory is the only way of discovering the past Other sources simply do not exist This is true for any history of Maori women in this century All the women in this book have lived through times of acute social disturbance Their voices must be heard Judith Binney 1992 In eight remarkable oral histories NGA MOREHU brings alive the experience of Maori women from in the mid twentieth century Heni Brown Reremoana Koopu Maaka Jones Hei Ariki Algie Heni Sunderland Miria Rua Putiputi Onekawa and Te Akakura Rua talked with Judith Binney and Gillian Chaplin sharing stories and memoirs These are the women whose voices must be heard The title the survivors reflects the women's connection with the visionary leader Te Kooti Arikirangi Te Turuki and his followers who adopted the name Nga Morehu during the wars of the 1860s But these women are not only survivors they are also the chosen ones the leaders of their society They speak here of richly diverse lives of arranged marriages and whangai adoption traditions of working in both Maori and Pakeha communities They pay testimony to their strong sense of a shared identity created by religious and community teachings Banking Act of 1935 United States.
