traditional classroom trainers and saving companies millions of dollars in housing and travel costs because trainees no longer need a plane ticket and 3 nights accommodation to attend a corporate training program the training can be delivered to each learner's desktop over the Web. But because e Learning is still in the revolution stage there are no clear standards and models for how to create and deliver e Learning successfully. Everyone is asking the same questions: how does web based training fit in with traditional classroom based training? What are the standards for designing high quality e Learning? How much interaction with an instructor do e Learning participants need? What is the role of the instructional designer in online learning? The ASTD e Learning Yearbook will be the first annual reference.

Making the Most of the Web in Your Classroom

Timothy D. Green, Abbie Brown, LeAnne Robinson, 2008. I have not seen a more teacher friendly resource for using the Web in the classroom. The authors took both novices and experts into consideration. A must have in every school. Elizabeth Alvarez, Math and Science Coach, Chicago Public Schools, IL. A user friendly tool on many levels. I would recommend this book to media specialists, instructional technology teachers and district coordinators for both content and technology. April DeGennaro, Gifted Education Teacher, Peeples Elementary School, Fayetteville, GA. Translate Web technology into practical applications for the daily curriculum. Designed for novices and experienced users, this comprehensive guide includes all the need to know aspects of using the World Wide Web to support student learning. Making the Most of the Web in Your Classroom covers the language of the Web, describes Web editing software and shows how to use Web tools that offer unique learning opportunities for students. This book examines issues of student safety, appropriate netiquette and copyright and other legal considerations and provides field tested strategies, examples and reproducibles to help teachers create powerful learning opportunities. Educators will be able to meet ISTE NETS technology and content standards as they design and build Web sites. Help students develop their own Internet projects. Evaluate and manage Web projects. Featuring a list of key terms in each chapter, this timely resource will motivate your students and help make technology a seamless part of your classroom instruction.
