Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky, 2023-11-03 In Fugitive Time Matthew Omelsky theorizes the embodied experience of time in twentieth and twenty first century black artforms from across the world Through the lens of time he charts the sensations and coursing thoughts that accompany desires for freedom as they appear in the work of artists as varied as Toni Morrison Yvonne Vera Aimé Césaire and Issa Samb Fugitive time names a distinct utopian desire directed at the anticipated moment when the body and mind have been unburdened of the violence that has consumed black life globally for centuries bringing with it a new form of being Omelsky shows how fugitive time is not about attaining this transcendent

release but is instead about sustaining the idea of it as an ecstatic social gathering From the desire for ethereal queer worlds in the Black Audio Film Collective's Twilight City to Sun Ra's transformation of nineteenth century scientific racism into an insurgent fugitive aesthetic Omelsky shows how fugitive time evolves and how it remains a dominant form of imagining freedom in global black cultural expression Representing Poverty in the Anglophone Postcolonial World Verena Jain-Warden, Barbara Schmidt-Haberkamp, 2021-06-07 Originally a concern primarily of social studies and economics poverty has emerged as a significant thematic focus and analytical tool in literary and cultural studies in the last two decades The new poverty studies are dedicated to analyzing representations of poverty and the poor in literature and the visual arts in the news media and in social practices They aim at exploring the frameworks of representation that impact the affective and ethical responses of audiences to disenfranchised groups such as the poor The contributions to this volume focus on representations of poverty in the Anglophone postcolonial world exploring for example contemporary discourses on poverty in the UK filmic representations of Nairobi slums or the agency of the poor in literature from India New Global Realism Gabriele Lazzari, 2024-08-22 A comparative study of contemporary realist novels that employ totality as a method and a formal principle to represent the social and economic inequalities of the present this book examines writing in English Italian Kannada and Spanish by authors from Zimbabwe Ghana Italy India and Mexico By theorizing four modalities of totalization employed by contemporary realist writers this book explores the current resurgence of realism and challenges critical approaches that consider it naive or formally unsophisticated Instead it argues that realist novels offer a self conscious and serious representation of the world we inhabit while actively envisioning new social designs and political configurations Through comparative studies of novels by Fernanda Melchor NoViolet Bulawayo Vivek Shanbhag Nicola Lagioia Igiaba Scego Yaa Gyasi and Roberto Bola o this book further explains why realism can be a powerful antidote to the skepticism about the possibility of making truth claims in humanist research Holding the World Together Nwando Achebe, Claire Robertson, 2019-04-16 Featuring contributions from some of the most accomplished scholars on the topic Holding the World Together explores the rich and varied ways in which women have wielded power across the African continent from the precolonial period to the present Suitable for classroom use this comprehensive volume considers such topics as the representation of African women their role in national liberation movements their experiences of religious fundamentalism both Christian and Muslim their incorporation into the world economy changing family and marriage systems impacts of the world economy on their lives and livelihoods and the unique challenges they face in the areas of health and disease Contributors Nwando Achebe Ousseina Alidou Signe Arnfred Andrea L Arrington Sirois Henryatta Ballah Teresa Barnes Josephine Beoku Betts Emily Burril Abena P A Busia Gracia Clark Alicia Decker Karen Flint December Green Cajetan Iheka Rachel Jean Baptiste Elizabeth M Perego Claire Robertson Kathleen Sheldon Aili Mari Tripp Cassandra Veney

Glory NoViolet Bulawayo, 2022-03-08 2022 BOOKER PRIZE FINALIST. Manifoldly clever brilliant. Glory is its own vivid world drawn from its own folklore. This is a satire with sharper teeth, angrier and also very very funny. Violet Kupersmith. The New York Times Book Review Genius 1. New York Times bestselling author Jason Reynolds. From the award winning author of the Booker prize finalist We Need New Names, an exhilarating novel about the fall of an oppressive regime and the chaos and opportunity that rise in its wake. NoViolet Bulawayo's bold new novel follows the fall of the Old Horse, the long serving leader of a fictional country and the drama that follows for a rumbustious nation of animals on the path to true liberation. Inspired by the unexpected fall by coup in November 2017 of Robert G. Mugabe, Zimbabwe's president of nearly four decades, Glory shows a country's imploding narrated by a chorus of animal voices that unveil the ruthlessness required to uphold the illusion of absolute power and the imagination and bulletproof optimism to overthrow it completely. By immersing readers in the daily lives of a population in upheaval, Bulawayo reveals the dazzling life force and irresistible wit that lie barely concealed beneath the surface of seemingly bleak circumstances. And at the center of this tumult is Destiny, a young goat who returns to Jidada to bear witness to revolution and to recount the unofficial history and the potential legacy of the females who have quietly pulled the strings here. The animal kingdom, its connection to our primal responses and its resonance in the mythology, folktales and fairy tales that define cultures, the world over, unmasks the surreality of contemporary global politics to help us understand our world more clearly even as Bulawayo plucks us right out of it. Although Zimbabwe is the immediate inspiration for this thrilling story, Glory was written in a time of global clamor with resistance movements across the world challenging different forms of oppression. Thus it often feels like Bulawayo captures several places in one blockbuster allegory, crystallizing a turning point in history with the texture and nuance that only the greatest fiction can.

African Women Narrating Identity Rose A. Sackeyfio, 2023-08-08. This book examines the complexities of women's lives in Africa and the transnational spaces of Europe and North America through the literary works of key African women writers. Using a postcolonial analytical framework, the book highlights the commonalities of African women's identities and experiences across national, ethnic, linguistic and religious boundaries in Africa and in western settings. It collates the multi-regional narratives of key African women writers who convey how women's lives are shaped by social, economic and political factors at home and abroad. It also illustrates the intersection of ethnicity, class and gender that flows through all the texts examined. Unlike existing works that explore African women's fiction, this book uncovers the transformation from postcolonial themes of nationhood to global modalities of post-independence writing through the lens of gender. The book engages with feminist expression through broad themes including religion, war and ethnic conflict, women's status in society, tradition and
