Digital Communication Management Mark Badham, Vilma Luoma-aho, 2025-09-22 This state of the art textbook provides a wide ranging foundation to communication management including corporate communication public relations and strategic communication from an exclusively digital and global perspective. The book covers the core principles necessary for introductory students of both university and executive programs with a particular focus on how digital technology is shaping communication management in the increasingly volatile environment. To help bring theories concepts and challenges to life it features captivating real life stories case examples and studies and insightful Q&As with senior practitioners collectively representing almost 40 organizations of various types and sizes from 20 countries across the world. Thought provoking exercises and critical and reflective questions contribute to a deeper level of understanding of each chapter's topics. These and other pedagogical tools as well as the newly emerging Digital Media Arena DMA Framework orient readers with the fast changing global and volatile world of digital communication management. Additionally the book extensively incorporates emerging topics and future trends in communication management e.g. digital communication hijacking, misinformation, virtual influencers and AI enabled predictive modeling. This book is designed for courses or modules that cover an introduction to communication management, corporate communication, public relations and/or strategic communication in communications and business schools. Online resources also accompany the text: an author created podcast, PowerPoint lecture slides, tutorial workshop exercises, case studies, reading reflection forms, quizzes and instructions for assignments, case study essay and podcast reflection. Contemplation of a Crime Susan Juby, 2025-05-06 Buddhist butler and reluctant investigator Helen Thorpe bands together with her fellow butler school graduates to rescue her very wealthy employer and his son in this new mystery by bestselling author Susan Juby Butler. Helen Thorpe is not one to judge but the participants in Close Encounters for Global Healing are astonishingly unpleasant. The five day program brings together people from across the political spectrum with the goal of helping them bridge their ideological and personal differences. Helen and her employer Mr Levine have come to Side Island to assist David his youngest son who is facilitating the course. The motley assortment of participants includes a burned out environmental activist, an internet troll, a clueless consumerist, an alleged white nationalist and a man who was arrested at the Freedom Convoy in Ottawa. No one seems interested in a civil conversation much less global healing and each person has shown up with their own secret agenda. No rapprochement between the warring or at least endlessly bickering parties seems possible. But when something deadly happens they must learn to work together. First they have to figure out who among them can be trusted.
