What does an autumn crisp taste like? It's always been a popular choice for coffee houses to provide the sweet taste that only stays around in the fall season. One of the most popular coffee houses in the United States, Starbucks, has been serving up their own unique version of the latte for over a decade. It's become a cultural symbol of autumn, comfort, and delight. The main flavor of these coffee houses, and many other coffee houses, is pumpkin! Come find out what makes this drink so loved throughout the year!

The story of the Pumpkin Spice Latte begins in 1998 with the general manager of Starbucks, Howard Schultz, who was trying to come up with a drink to take the season of autumn flavor upon. From there, he had the idea to blend pumpkin and coffee together to create a different flavor that everyone could enjoy. They tried various ingredients, but eventually settled on the pumpkin pie flavor that most people enjoyed. After several attempts of trying, the team discovered that the perfect combination was coffee, pumpkin pie, and a sweet cream base.

After the drink became very popular, and pumpkin latte flavor became the new go-to drink for coffee houses everywhere. However, one coffee house didn't want to be left out of the trend. That's where Tim Hortons came in and created a new coffee house flavor, coffee with cream and pumpkin pie. And that's how their own version of the Pumpkin Spice Latte was born.
