Register of the Kentucky Historical Society Kentucky Historical Society,1999 TVA photography , The Publishers Weekly ,1898 TVA Photography Patricia Bernard Ezzell,2003 The Tennessee Valley Authority was a New Deal agency created by President Franklin D Roosevelt during his first hundred days in office At that time the region served by the Authority was one of the most economically depressed areas of the nation TVA was charged not only to improve the navigability of the Tennessee River and to provide flood control and cheap electricity but also to help in improving the overall quality of life Photography documented the efforts the agency took to meet this mandate This book highlights the TVA s first thirty years and focuses on the talented photographers who snapped the images during the period 1933 to 1963. Primarily represented in this volume are Lewis Hine and Charles Krutch whose work came to define the public image of TVA. Their photographs providing a glimpse into the past afford a view of a depressed region of the South as it was transformed into a place where one of the most technological advancements of our time, the atomic bomb, was created. Appalachian Heritage, 1998 Guide to the Special Collections of Prints & Photographs in the Library of Congress Library of Congress, Reference Department, 1955 A History of Tennessee Arts Carroll Van West, 2004 This illustrated book cosponsored by the Tennessee Arts Commission and the Tennessee Historical Society covers the varieties of art in Tennessee in five parts. The visual arts and architecture section includes chapters on vernacular and high style architecture, sculpture, painting, and photography, while the section on craft arts celebrates folk arts such as woodcraft, silversmithing, pottery, and textiles. The section on Tennessee's rich literary history includes such writers as James Agee, Robert Penn Warren, and Evelyn Scott, while the performing arts are represented by a wealth of storytellers along with two centuries of stage history. Finally, Tennessee is home to and originator of much of the music that we know as distinctively American. Contributors to the music section examine gospel, blues, rock, soul, and, of course, country music. BOOK JACKET

Posters, Propaganda, and Persuasion in Election Campaigns Around the World and Through History Steven A. Seidman, 2008 How effective are election campaign posters? Providing a unique political history, this book traces the impact that these posters, as well as broadsides, banners, and billboards, have had around the world over the last two centuries. It focuses on the use of this campaign material in the United States as well as in France, Great Britain, Germany, South Africa, Japan, Mexico, and many other countries. The book examines how posters evolved and discusses their changing role in the twentieth century and thereafter, how technology, education, legislation, artistic movements, advertising, and political systems effected changes in election posters and other campaign media, and how they were employed around the world. This comprehensive and original overview of this campaign material includes the first extensive review of the research literature on the topic. Posters, Propaganda, and Persuasion will be useful to scholars and students interested in communications, politics, history, advertising, and marketing, art history, and graphic design.
