The Terrorist In Search Of Humanity Militant Islam And Global Politics:

Terrorist in Search of Humanity Faisal Devji, 2019-12-01 Faisal Devji argues that new forms of militancy such as the actions of al Qaeda are informed by the same desire for agency and equality that animates other humanitarian interventions such as environmentalism and pacifism To the militant victimized Muslims are more than just symbols of ethnic and religious persecution they represent humanity's centuries long struggle for legitimacy and agency Acts of terror therefore are fueled by the militant's desire to become a historical actor on the global stage Though they have yet to build concrete political institutions militant movements have formed a kind of global society and as Devji makes clear this society pursues the same humanitarian objectives that drive more benevolent groups

The Terrorist in Search of Humanity Faisal Devji, 2020 Argues that various forms of militancy such as the actions of al Qaeda are informed by the same desire for agency and equality that animates other humanitarian interventions such as environmentalism and pacifism

Media and Utopia Arvind Rajagopal, Anupama Rao, 2017-07-05 Collective political projects have become ephemeral and are subject to radical forms of erasure through cooptation division redefinition or intimidation in present times Media and Utopia responds to the resulting crisis of the social by investigating the links between mediation and political imagination This volume addresses those utopian spaces historically constituted through media and analyses the conditions that made them possible Individual essays deal with non Western histories of technopolitics through distinctive perspectives on how to conceive the relationship between social form everyday life and utopian possibility and by examining a range of media formats and genres from print sound and film to new media With contributions from major scholars in the field this book will be of interest to researchers and scholars of media studies culture studies sociology modern South Asian history and politics

Hostage Spaces of the Contemporary Islamicate World Dejan Lukic, 2012-11-21 How is hostage space constructed In this age long procedure found in conflicts around the world strange forms of terror and intimacy arise particularly in the contemporary Islamic cultures of Chechnya Albania and Bosnia This book investigates the modes of desire and politics found in kidnapping in order to reveal the voices of victims and kidnappers that often remain closed up Dejan Lukic explores the spaces where hostages and hostage takers come into contact spaces of accident sacrifice hope and catastrophe or in other words the spaces that announce utopias bound to fail In this book the figures of the victim the terrorist the sovereign the resistance fighter and the witness among others emerge with a new face one that will contribute to our understandings of what it means to act politically and ethically today

Transgressive Truths and Flattering Lies Markus Schmitz, 2020-04-02 This book explores the formative correlations and inventive transmissions of Anglophone Arab representations ranging from early 20th century Mahjar writings to contemporary transnational Palestinian resistance art Tracing multiple beginnings and seminal intertexts the comparative study of dissonant truth making presents critical readings in which the notion of cross cultural translation gets displaced and strategic unreliability representational opacity or matters of act advance to essential qualities of the discussed works aesthetic devices and ethical concerns Questioning conventional interpretive approaches Markus Schmitz shows what Anglophone Arab studies are and what they can become from a radically decentered relational point of view Among the writers and artists discussed are such diverse figures as Rabi Alameddine William Blatty Kahlil Gibran Ihab Hassan Jabra Ibrahim Jabra Emily Jacir Walid Raad Ameen Rihani Edward Said Larissa Sansour and Raja Shehadeh

Terror and Performance Rustom Bharucha, 2014-04-16 This work goes where other books fear to tread It reaches the parts other scholars might imagine in their dreams but would neither have the international reach nor the critical acumen and forensic flourish to deliver Alan Read King's College London This book is not only timely It is overdue and it is a masterpiece unrivalled by any book I know of Erika Fischer Lichte Freie Universität Berlin The first and only book that focuses on the intersections of performance terror and terrorism as played out beyond a Euro American context post 9/11 It is an important work both substantively and methodologically Jenny Hughes University of Manchester A profound and tightly bound sequence of reflections a rigorously provocative book Stephen Barber Kingston University London In this exceptional investigation Rustom Bharucha considers the realities of Islamophobia the legacies of Truth and Reconciliation the deadly certitudes of State controlled security systems and the legitimacy of counter terror terrorism drawing on a vast spectrum of human cruelties across the global South The outcome is a brilliantly argued case for seeing terror as a volatile and mutant phenomenon that is deeply lived experienced and performed within the cultures of everyday life American Mourning

Simon Stow, 2017-07-25 This insightful study employs public mourning as a lens to identify and address the shortcomings of American democracy Emerging Military Technologies Bernhard Koch, Richard Schoonhoven, 2022-04-19 The speed of technological change is demonstrated not least by the new military technologies that are in use or are currently being developed For example the use of remote controlled and semi autonomous weapons systems has long been standard in the armed forces and advances in artificial intelligence mean that more decision making can be expected to be transferred to the machines used by the military But not everything that is technologically possible is ethically justifiable This volume which brings together contributions to an annual conference of the European Chapter of the International Society for Military Ethics attempts to address the ethical and legal problems posed by emerging military technologies In a number of exciting essays internationally renowned researchers present their insights The Muslim World Book Review, 2010 2010

[catalog] Degruyter, 2010-12-16 Reviews are an important aspect of scholarly discussion because they help filter out which works are relevant in the yearly flood of publications and are thus influential in determining how a work is received The IBR published again since 1971 as an interdisciplinary international bibliography of reviews it is a unique source of bibliographical information The database contains entries on over 1.2 million book reviews of literature dealing primarily with the humanities and social sciences published in 6,820 mainly European scholarly journals Reviews of more than 560,000 scholarly works are listed The database increases every year by 60,000 entries Every entry contains the following
