Lawrence Cunningham

The Theology Of Canon Law A Methodological Question:

The Theology of Canon Law Eugenio Corecco,1992 Religion, Law and Tradition Andrew Huxley,2012-10-12 This book brings together two scholarly traditions experts in Roman Jewish and Islamic law an area where scholars tend to be familiar with work in each area and experts in the legal traditions of South and East Asia which have tended to be less interdisciplinary The resulting mix produces new ways of looking at comparative law and legal history from a global perspective and these essays contribute both to our understanding of comparative religion as well as comparative law

Christian Law Norman Doe,2013-09-12 Christian Law Contemporary Principles offers a detailed comparison of the laws of churches across ten distinct Christian traditions worldwide Catholic Orthodox Anglican Lutheran Methodist Reformed Presbyterian United Congregational and Baptist From this comparison Professor Doe proposes that all denominations of the faith share common principles in spite of their doctrinal divisions and that these principles reveal a concept of Christian law and contribute to a theological understanding of global Christian identity Adopting a unique interdisciplinary approach the book provides comprehensive coverage on the sources and purposes of church law the faithful lay and ordained the institutions of church governance discipline and dispute resolution doctrine and worship the rites of passage ecumenism property and finance as well as church State and society This is an invaluable resource for lawyers and theologians who are engaged in ecumenical and interfaith dialogue showing how dogmas may divide but laws link Christians across traditions

Keeping Faith in Practice James Sweeney,2013-02-12 Keeping Faith in Practice is an addition to SCM s growing Practical and Pastoral Theology list Most books in this field are written by authors from various Protestant backgrounds Catholic teachers in this field are frequently asked by colleagues for suggestions of Catholic resources and find themselves at a loss The central subject of this book is an exploration of how theology engages with the dimension of practice in the life of the Church and contemporary society and culture The book covers the main focal points of a Catholic view of pastoral practical theology its foundations and different fields Law, Person, and Community John J. Coughlin,2012-04-19 This publication takes up the fundamental question What is law through a comparative study of canon law and secular legal theory The book also includes comparative consideration of the failure of canon law to address the clergy sexual abuse crisis the canon law of marriage administrative law the rule of law and much more American Journal of Theology & Philosophy ,1993

Intractable Disputes about the Natural Law Lawrence Cunningham,2009 In 2004 then Cardinal Ratzinger requested that the University of Notre Dame study the complex issues embedded in discussions about natural rights and natural law in the context of Catholic thinking To that end Alasdair MacIntyre provided a substantive essay on the foundational problem of moral disagreements concerning natural law and eight scholars were invited to respond to MacIntyre s essay either by addressing his work directly or by amplifying his argument along other yet similar paths The contributors to this volume are theologians philosophers civil and canon lawyers and political scientists who reflect on these issues from different disciplinary perspectives MacIntyre responds to the other contributors in a closing essay Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print ,1995 Choice ,1993 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2005 Selected Acquisitions of the Library Indiana University, Bloomington. Law Library,1992 Current Contents Institute for Scientific Information (Philadelphia),1993 The Cumulative Book Index ,1994 A world list of books in the English language The Profession and Practice of Medieval Canon Law James A. Brundage,2004 This latest collection of studies by James Brundage deals with the emergence of the profession of canon law and with aspects of its practice in the period from the 12th to the 14th centuries Substantial numbers of lawyers systematically trained in canon law first appeared in Western Europe during the second half of the 12th century and in the 13th they began to dominate the hierarchy of the Western church By 1250 canon law had grown into something more than a profitable occupation it had become a recognizable profession in the strict meaning of the term as it is still used today Particular topics are the canonists system of legal ethics the education and training of canon lawyers in university law faculties and some fundamental features of the professional practice of canon law both in medieval Europe and in the crusading states of the Levant Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1995

Religious Studies in the 20th Century Alberto Melloni,Massimo Faggioli,2006 In Assisi at the end of 2003 theologians and historians from various countries as well as different denominational backgrounds met to attempt an overview of religious studies in the 20th century This meeting contributed to the debate about the effects of epistemological transitions on theology and religious studies in the 20th century The interdisciplinary approach and the historical political and interdenominational character of the participants panel enabled the meeting the proceedings of which are published here to identify some coordinates on the path of the 20th century from the point of view of theological and religious studies Index to Book Reviews in Religion ,1994 Methodology of Study and Scientific Work Father Dominic of St. Teresa,1982
