The Theology of Food Angel F. Méndez-Montoya, 2012-04-23 The links between religion and food have been known for centuries and yet we rarely examine or understand the nature of the relationship between food and spirituality or food and sin. Drawing on literature, politics and philosophy as well as theology, this book unlocks the role food has played within religious tradition. A fascinating book tracing the centuries old links between theology and food, showing religion in a new and intriguing light. Draws on examples from different religions, the significance of the apple in the Christian Bible and the eating of bread as the body of Christ, the eating and fasting around Ramadan for Muslims and how the dietary laws of Judaism are designed to create an awareness of living in the time and space of the Torah. Explores ideas from the fields of literature, politics and philosophy as well as theology. Takes seriously the idea that food matters and that the many aspects of eating, table fellowship, culinary traditions, the aesthetic, ethical and political dimensions of food are important and complex and throw light on both religion and our relationship to food.

Progressive Creation and the Struggles of Humanity in the Bible Zoltan Dornyei, 2018-03-22 Why does the Christian walk often feel like an ongoing struggle and why does God's creation include imperfection let alone forces that are intent on thwarting God's creative work? In seeking a response to these questions, this book argues that the biblical accounts describe creation in terms of a progressive transformation process whereby the initially incomplete created order will reach perfection only in the fulfillment of new creation. The following discussion then outlines a comprehensive framework for the biblical theology of humanity's struggles centered on three key themes: corporeal temptation, deficient social structures and the much debated notion of spiritual warfare. The book presents an overarching canonical narrative that threads together a series of diverse biblical topics from Job's temptation to the Atonement. The final part surveys biblical teaching on how human conduct can be aligned with God's creative purpose and discusses three assignments from Jesus to believers to celebrate the Eucharist, to pray the Lord's Prayer and to fulfill the Great Commission.

Feasting on the Gospels: Chapters 1-9 Cynthia A. Jarvis, E. Elizabeth Johnson, 2015-01-01 Feasting on the Gospels follows up on the success of the Feasting on the Word series with all new material on the most prominent and preached on New Testament books, the four Gospels. With contributions from a diverse and respected group of scholars and pastors, Feasting on the Gospels covers every single passage in the Gospels, making it suitable for both lectionary and non-lectionary use. Moreover, these volumes incorporate the unique format of Feasting on the Word with four perspectives for preachers to choose from for each Gospel passage: theological, pastoral, exegetical and homiletical.

Beyond Secular Order John Milbank, 2014-01-28 Beyond Secular Order is the first of a two volume work that expands upon renowned theologian John Milbank's innovative attempt to understand both theology and modern thought begun in his previously published classic text Theology and Social Theory. Continues Milbank's innovative attempt to understand both theology and modern thought begun in Theology and Social Theory, considered a classic work in the development of systematic theology.

Authored by one of the world's most influential and highly regarded contemporary theologians. Draws on a sweep of ideas and thinkers to argue that modern secularism is a form of Christian heresy that developed from the Middle Ages and can only be overcome by a renewed account of Christendom. Shows how this heresy can be transformed into a richer blend of religion, modernity and politics. Reveals how there is a fundamental homology between modern ideas about ontology and knowledge and modern ideas about political action expressed in both theory and practice. After Enlightenment John R.

Betz, 2012-03-12 After Enlightenment Hamann as Post Secular Visionary is a comprehensive introduction to the life and works of eighteenth century German philosopher J G Hamann the founding father of what has come to be known as Radical Orthodoxy. Provides a long overdue comprehensive introduction to Hamann's fascinating life and controversial works including his role as a friend and critic of Kant and some of the most renowned German intellectuals of the age. Features substantial new translations of the most important passages from across Hamann's writings some of which have never been translated into English. Examines Hamann's highly original views on a range of topics including faith, reason, revelation, Christianity, biblical exegesis, Socrates, theological aesthetics, language, sexuality, religion, politics and the relationship between Judaism and Christianity. Presents Hamann as the founding father of a distinctly post modern post secular theology and as such as an alternative to the postmodern triumvirate of Nietzsche, Heidegger and Derrida. Considers Hamann's work as a touchstone of modern Jewish Christian dialogue in view of debates with his friend Moses Mendelsohn. Explores Hamann's role as the visionary founder of a metacritical movement that radically calls into question the basic principles of modern secular reason and thus reprises the debate between those defending Hamann's views and those labeling him the bête noir of the Enlightenment.

No God, No Science Michael Hanby, 2013-02-19 No God No Science Theology, Cosmology, Biology presents a work of philosophical theology that retrieves the Christian doctrine of creation from the distortions imposed upon it by positivist science and the Darwinian tradition of evolutionary biology. Argues that the doctrine of creation is integral to the intelligibility of the world. Brings the metaphysics of the Christian doctrine of creation to bear on the nature of science. Offers a provocative analysis of the theoretical and historical relationship between theology, metaphysics and science.

Presents an original critique and interpretation of the philosophical meaning of Darwinian biology. Food and Faith Norman Wirzba, 2011-05-23 A comprehensive theological framework for assessing the significance of eating, demonstrating that eating is of profound economic, moral and theological significance. The Living Church, 1911. Food Theology Kellie Lisi, Martin J. Lohrman, 2025-09-09 From biblical times to today Christ's gospel has gone through real stomachs to nourish people with fullness, fellowship, abundance and joy. By weaving together scriptural reflection, compelling stories, best practices and satisfying recipes, Food Theology introduces a gospel-centered food theology and provides a user-friendly how-to guide for those who want to explore and deepen the role of food in their mission and ministry. Food Theology invites eaters to a consideration of food itself as a primary communicator of God's love, grace and sustenance for all creation. While many people know that food is a gift from God the rich insights of food theology have not been widely shared with congregational audiences and church practitioners in a single digestible resource Lisi and Lohrmann draw upon theological grounding and ministry experience to introduce readers to the blessings of intentionally connecting food and faith Each chapter of this book provides readers with clear practical and adaptable suggestions for how to expand existing food ministries or start new ones Through easy to follow recipes and guides readers will be able to sense for themselves the exciting possibilities that come with increased attention to local food ministries and eating in community Food Theology shifts our attention to the transformative power of food giving readers the knowledge and resources to practice sharing God s goodness
