traces the course of evolution from matter to life to mind and describes the common patterns that evolution takes in all three of these domains From the emergence of mind he traces the evolution of human consciousness through its major stages of growth and development He particularly focuses on modernity and postmodernity what they mean how they impact gender issues psychotherapy ecological concerns and various liberation movements and how the modern and postmodern world conceive of Spirit This second edition features forty pages of new material new diagrams and extensively revised notes

Science Fiction for Young Readers Charles William Sullivan,1993-03-24 In this collection of essays authorities on a wide range of topics related to science fiction discuss themes and works of special interest to young readers The first section includes chapters on the origins of science fiction as a genre for young people and contains essays on Victor Appleton's Tom Swift series and the contributions of Isaac Asimov Robert A Heinlein and Madeleine L Engle The second section looks beyond the origins of science fiction to particular works and authors The chapters in this section approach authors and their works from particular thematic perspectives and thus show how particular themes bind together and define the body of an author's writings The third section on science fiction as a vehicle for ideas looks beyond the literary features of the genre Chapters in this section discuss science fiction as a means for conveying religious philosophical and social messages

Buddhism and Ecology Martine Batchelor,Kerry Brown,1992 The Uncertainty of Analysis Timothy J. Reiss,1988 The Uncertainty of Analysis pursues key issues raised in the author's earlier Discourse of Modernism a ground breaking work which focused attention on the nature of discourse and the ways in which one culturally dominant discursive class may be replaced by another In this timely and provocative collection of his essays Timothy J Reiss shows how efforts to reconfirm the force and power of modernist analytical referential discourse in the late nineteenth and the twentieth centuries have actually brought to the fore internal contradictions have made clear the problematic nature of the dominant discourse and have precipitated the emergence of competing discourses Reiss considers the explorations in foundational logic by Frege and Peirce examinations of language and its relations to mind by Saussure Greimas and Chomsky work in linguistic and scientific epistemology by Wittgenstein and Heisenberg and the attempts to analyze the nature of society by Sartre and other Western Marxists Reiss turns to some practitioners of literary criticism and theory who have sought to escape past constraints and he points to what appear to be erroneous routes away from the dilemmas raised by these philosophers and critics

Consorting with Angels Deryn Rees-Jones,2005 In this pioneering study Deryn Rees Jones argues that the poetic traditions of the 20th century must be radically re thought in light of the formal and thematic experimentation of three generations of women poets
