A Sailor's History of the U.S. Navy Thomas J. Cutler, 2005-01-15 Today's sailors have too little appreciation of their heritage To counter this problem Thomas J. Cutler has compiled a history of our naval heritage in the form of A Sailor's History of the U.S. Navy The work is unique in two important ways First it is written thematically rather than chronologically This allows recent history to be blended with more distant but important events in ways that will reinforce the timelessness as well as the timeliness of the U.S. Navy thereby having a greater appeal to today's sailor There are a number of themes being used the most obvious are manifested in chapters with the themes of honor courage and commitment but others serve as useful vehicles as well for example there is a chapter called What's in a Name that briefly discusses how ships have been named and then uses the many ships that have carried the name Enterprise as the theme for presenting significant portions of the Navy's history The other unique characteristic of this history is that it focuses wherever possible on the roles of ALL sailors rather than just the officers That is not to say that Jones and Decatur are not there but that the emphasis is along the lines of the crew of the Bon Homme Richard fought on into the night rather than Jones fought Also there are plenty of individual sailor heroes who can stand alongside the Perrys and the Farraguts Boatswain's Mate First Class Williams who won the Medal of Honor in Vietnam Dorie Miller of Pearl Harbor fame Gunner's Mate Third Class Paul Henry Carr at the battle off Samar etc Some emphasis upon what it was like to be a sailor working and living conditions at different times is included as well

The Marine Corps' Search for a Mission, 1880-1898 Jack Shulimson, 1993 Heirs to a storied past and glorified as modern day knights the Marine Corps the elite fighting force in America's military in fact has not always been so highly regarded As Jack Shulimson shows only a century ago the Corps identity and existence were much in question Although the Marines were formally established by Congress in 1798 and subsequently distinguished themselves fighting on the Barbary Coast their essential mission and identity remained unclear throughout most of the nineteenth century But amid the crosscurrents of industrialization technological change professionalization and reform that emerged in Gilded Age America the Corps underwent a gradual transformation that ultimately secured its significant and enduring military role In this enlightening study Shulimson argues that the Marine Corps officers inextricable ties to the Navy both hampered and aided their attempt to define their own special jurisdiction and professional identity Often treated like a poor relation the Marine officers frequently found themselves in direct competition with their counterparts in the Navy and at times the object of the latter's scorn Shulimson reveals the processes politics and personalities that converged to create these tense and sometimes embattled relations but he goes on to show how Marine officers with the Navy's blessing eventually transcended their second class role The Oxford Companion to American Military History, Leathernecks Merrill L. Bartlett,Jack Sweetman,2008 Combining a lively well researched narrative with a generous selection of photographs paintings and maps this volume details how the U S Marine Corps developed what is arguably the world's most potent military mystique

Illustrated History of Nebraska Julius Sterling Morton,1907 U.S. Naval Institute Proceedings United States Naval Institute,1995 Annapolis, City on the Severn Jane W. McWilliams,2011-06-15 As unique as the city it describes Annapolis City on the Severn builds on the most recent scholarship and offers readers a fascinating portrait into the past of this great city Illustrated History and Biographical Record of Lenawee County, Mich. ... John I. Knapp,1903 The Americana Frederick Converse Beach,George Edwin Rines,1907 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1877 United States Naval Institute Proceedings ,2003
