Christopher's Story Jennifer Cothran,2017-12-14 On April 23 1993 author Jennifer Cothran s life changed forever Her blue eyed and dark haired son Christopher Adam Cothran was born He would be the hero and eldest of three brothers Jennifer tells the story On October 13 2015 Christopher took his life with a gun The handsome outgoing faithful athletic gift from God was gone Our hearts were empty as his chair at our table and still are He didn t leave a note We had many questions Jennifer describes grief and pours out her heart in hope she will help others during their darkest nights She found a place of peace where others who are asking the hard quesitons about suicide also will discover joy coming in the morning When a huring heart chooses a permanant solution to end a temporary problem they fail to see the pain they leave behind It changes families forever Christopher s Story wraps loving arms around the hurting and pleads for everyone to choose life

The Advocate ,2003-08-19 The Advocate is a lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT monthly newsmagazine Established in 1967 it is the oldest continuing LGBT publication in the United States SAVING OURSELVES from SUICIDE - BEFORE and After Linda Pacha,2020-04-29 Nick a kindhearted nineteen year old walked from his college campus to a tall bridge and jumped into the Mississippi The lost body the subsequent jumpers suddenly the unthinkable became unfathomable Linda Pacha takes you on a powerful journey through her son s heartbreakin life story including ongoing bullying not fitting in and ultimately suffering from mental health issues as well as her family s grief process offering guidance to save others from suicide and help those grieving in the aftermath of loss Her hope is that you will benefit from these insights gained from hindsight to help yourself your family or your friends Suicide prevention Access to real life examples of suicide warning signs missed in Nick s last behaviors and communications discussion of mental health issues as a risk factor an inside look at private challenges and bullying and ways to help those struggling to stay alive Self help grief after loss Recommendations on navigating the grief process including the challenging steps back into society new family dynamics and necessary choices after loss explanation of the stigma judgment and misconceptions of mental health and suicide and ways to help loss survivors Tips for a better tomorrow Practical suggestions for reducing the pressure we put on ourselves and our youth and for creating a more compassionate world Standing in the Shadow June Cerza Kolf,2002-03-01 Grief counselor June Cerza Kolf is repeatedly asked for specific guidance in helping suicide survivors function and heal Their grief is unique in that the trauma of suicide leaves them in such a devastated state that the typical coping mechanisms no longer work With deep sensitivity Kolf leads readers through mourning to acceptance She helps them realize the tragedy was out of their control release their guilt and anger and gain the power of prayer Standing in the Shadow covers the heart of thirty four topics including depression forgiveness and the salvation of those who commit suicide The gentle honest writing provides answers hope and comfort for the bereaved Scraps of Paper Charles B. Pettis,2009 Suicide Pauline Cahillane,2019-08-25

There is nothing more tragic than losing a loved one to suicide This book explores the tormenting questions that bereaved families struggle with in the aftermath of suicide What could I have done to stop it Why didn t I see the signs How can I live without my loved one Will I ever feel normal again WHY did they choose to die Suicide still remains a mystery in the twenty first century Families dealing with suicide grief struggle to cope with the prospect that their questions will go unanswered This book contains a compilation of real life experiences expressed in short stories To protect the privacy of individuals the author uses a set of projected themes to highlight the impact of suicide grief on bereaved families The answers in this book will reflect the expertise of a counsellor with over ten years experience in suicide bereavement While there are no final resolutions there are insights and stories that will ease the burden of uncertainty for those left behind to pick up the pieces Pauline Cahillane is a Counsellor Psychotherapist and has specialised in the field of Suicide Bereavement Counselling for the last ten years She has worked for a number of private and non profit organisations as well as her own private practice Pauline is considered an expert in her field due to her experience working with hundreds of individuals and families in the aftermath of suicide Her experience working with families inspired her to write this book Pauline s hope is that anyone who has lost a loved one to suicide might get some answers here Grieving a Suicide Albert Y. Hsu,2002 The Wilderness of Suicide Grief Alan D. Wolfelt,2010-09-01 Presenting the idea of wilderness as a sustained metaphor for grief this compassionate guide explores the unique responses inherent to the grief felt by those who have experienced the suicide of a loved one and offers information about coping with such a profound loss Likening the death of a loved one to the experience of being wrenched from normal life and dropped down in the middle of nowhere the handbook employs 10 touchstones or trail markers that survivors use to begin to make their way through the new landscape Each touchstone gently guides readers through the entire grieving process and includes topics such as dispelling misconceptions regarding suicide exploring feelings and embracing the uniqueness of a loss Behind the Faces of Suicide P. K. Sumner,2017-01-17 There is hope Around the world over one million people die by suicide each year the majority due to mental illness Suicide is the tenth leading cause of death in the United States Behind the statistics are actual people families and friends We have collectively chosen to share our stories of the loved ones we have lost to suicide We want it to be known how these young people lived how they were loved how they struggled and how they fought to conquer their diseases until their battles were lost We are surviving the greatest losses of our lives and strive to continue healing There is great hope that there will be progress in research and funding for mental health suicide prevention and stopping the stigma
