The Unit Season 3 Episode 6:

Crossmappings Elisabeth Bronfen, 2018-05-22 The great influential cultural critic Elisabeth Bronfen sets out in this book a conversation between literature cinema and visual culture The crossmappings facilitated in and between these essays address the cultural survival of image formulas involving portraiture and the uncanny relation between the body and its visual representability the gendering of war death and the fragility of life as well as sovereignty and political power Each chapter tracks transformations that occur as aesthetic figurations travel from one historical moment to another but also from one medium to another Many prominent artists are discussed during these journeys into the cultural imaginary include Degas Francesca Woodman Cindy Sherman Paul McCarthy Eva Hesse Louise Bourgeois Wagner Picasso and Shakespeare as well as classic Hollywood s film noir and melodrama and the TV series The Wire and House of Cards Serial Shakespeare Elisabeth Bronfen, 2020-10-27 Shakespeare is everywhere in contemporary media culture This book explores the reasons for this dissemination and reassemblage Ranging widely over American TV drama it discusses the use of citations in Westworld and The Wire demonstrating how they tap into but also transform Shakespeare s preferred themes and concerns It then examines the presentation of female presidents in shows such as Commander in Chief and House of Cards revealing how they are modelled on figures of female sovereignty from his plays Finally it analyses the specifically Shakespearean dramaturgy of Deadwood and The Americans Ultimately the book brings into focus the way serial TV drama appropriates Shakespeare in order to give voice to the unfinished business of the American cultural imaginary Middle Eastern Television Drama Christa Salamandra, Nour Halabi, 2023-06-21 This monograph explores and investigates key issues facing Middle Eastern societies including religion and sectarianism history and collective memory urban space and socioeconomic difference policing and securitization and gender relations In the Middle East television drama creators serve as public intellectuals who with uncanny prescience tell the world something As this volume demonstrates fictional television provides a crucial space for social and political debate in much of the region Writing from a range disciplines anthropology communication folklore gender studies history and law contributors include seasoned academics who have dedicated their careers to researching Middle Eastern media and emerging scholars who build on earlier work and introduce fresh perspectives Together they provide an invaluable overview of Middle Eastern serial television and their political impact drawing examples from Afghanistan Egypt Iran Syria and Turkey Bringing together a diverse range of academic perspectives this book will be of key interest to students and scholars in media and communication studies Middle Eastern Studies and popular culture studies Assault on the Small Screen Molly Ann Magestro, 2015-07-22 Over the last few decades television programs have attempted to depict some of the more troubling elements of society with a more conscientious approach Issues that networks were once reluctant to broadcast such as sexual abuse sexual assault and rape have become frequent plot points for many popular shows Narratives that portray important social issues could potentially affect the ways individual viewers understand such incidents in the real world so it is important to pay close and critical attention to the stories about rape that are broadcast to mass audiences In Assault on the Small Screen Representations of Sexual Violence on Prime Time Television Dramas Molly Ann Magestro examines the ways in which police and legal dramas on network and cable channels portray rape narratives In this discussion the author focuses on eight successful shows NCIS Criminal Minds CSI The Closer Rizzoli Isles Dexter Law and Order Special Victims Unit and The Good Wife Each chapter offers a close reading and analysis of how one or more of the shows represent rape narratives and rape victims in ways that more or less address feminist understandings of rape and rape culture The arguments in each chapter explore the specific narrative content of individual series rather than a single critical approach Each of the eight shows considered within the book is the focus of its own argument as the representations of rape narratives on television are as complex as issues surrounding rape can be in the real world In a time when rape narratives are frequently making headlines taking the time to examine and understand the messages broadcast by a medium as ubiquitous as television serves an important role in developing an understanding of rape culture A significant step toward this understanding Assault on the Small Screen will be of interest to scholars of film and television media studies gender studies criminology and sociology

Journal of Interdisciplinary Science Topics, Volume 5 Cheryl Hurkett, 2016-06-03 The Journal of Interdisciplinary Science Topics JIST form part of the Interdisciplinary Research Journal module in the third year of both the BSc and MSci Interdisciplinary Science degrees It is intended to provide students with hands on experience of and insight into the academic publishing process The activity models the entire process from paper writing and submission refereeing other students papers sitting on the editorial board that makes final decisions on the papers to finally publishing in an online journal This book is a compilation of the papers written by undergraduate students that were published during the 2015 2016 academic year

The Unit, 1895 Rapper, Writer, Pop-Cultural Player Josephine Metcalf, Will Turner, 2016-04-08 This collection of essays critically engages with factors relating to black urban life and cultural representation in the post civil rights era using Ice T and his myriad roles as musician actor writer celebrity and industrialist as a vehicle through which to interpret and understand the African American experience Over the past three decades African Americans have faced a number of new challenges brought about by changes in the political economic and social structure of America Furthermore this vastly changed social landscape has produced a number of resonant pop cultural trends that have proved to be both innovative and admired on the one hand and contentious and divisive on the other Ice T's iconic and multifarious career maps these shifts This is the first book that taken as a whole looks at a black cultural icon's manipulation of or manipulation by so many different forms simultaneously The result is a fascinating series of tensions arising from Ice T's ability to inhabit conflicting pop cultural roles including hardcore gangsta rapper and dedicated philanthropist author of controversial song Cop Killer and network television cop self proclaimed pimp and reality television house husband As the essays in this collection detail Ice T's chameleonic public image consistently tests the accepted parameters of black cultural production and in doing so illuminates the contradictions of a society erroneously dubbed post racial Egalitarian Revolution in the Savanna Stephen A. Dueppen, 2014-09-11 Many West African societies have egalitarian political systems with non centralised distributions of power Egalitarian Revolution in the Savanna analyses a wide range of archaeological data to explore the development of such societies The volume offers a detailed case study of the village settlement of Kirikongo in western Burkina Faso Over the course of the first millennium this single homestead extended control over a growing community The book argues that the decentralization of power in the twelfth century BCE radically transformed this society changing gender roles public activities pottery making and iron working Egalitarian Revolution in the Savanna will be of interest to students of political science anthropology archaeology and the history of West Africa Engineering Record, Building Record and Sanitary Engineer ,1914 Automobile Trade Journal ,1912
