The Totem Pole An Intercultural History:

The Totem Pole Aldona Jonaitis, Aaron Glass, 2010 Writing a poem is like trying to describe a totemic column which passes right through and beyond the world We see it but its existence is elsewhere Stanley Diamond Totems The Northwest Coast totem pole captivates the imagination From the first descriptions of these tall carved monuments totem poles have become central icons of the Northwest Coast region and symbols of its Native inhabitants Although many of those who gaze at these carvings assume that they are ancient artifacts the so called totem pole is a relatively recent artistic development one that has become immensely important to Northwest Coast people and has simultaneously gained a common place in popular culture from fashion to the funny pages The Totem Pole reconstructs the intercultural history of the art form in its myriad manifestations from the eighteenth century to the present Aldona Jonaitis and Aaron Glass analyze the totem pole s continual transformation since Europeans first arrived on the scene investigate its various functions in different contexts and address the significant influence of colonialism on the proliferation and distribution of carved poles The authors also describe their theories on the development of the art form its spread from the Northwest Coast to world s fairs and global theme parks its integration with the history of tourism and its transformation into a signifier of place the role of governments museums and anthropologists in collecting and restoring poles and the part that these carvings have continuously played in Native struggles for control of their cultures and their lands Short essays by scholars and artists including Robert Davidson Bill Holm Richard Hunt Nathan Jackson Vickie Jensen Andrea Laforet Susan Point Charlotte Townsend Gault Lyle Wilson and Robin Wright provide specific case studies of many of the topics discussed directly illustrating the various relationships that people have with the totem pole Aldona Jonaitis is director emerita of the University of Alaska Museum of the North and professor at the University of Alaska Fairbanks An art historian who has published widely on Native American art she is the author of Art of the Northwest Coast and Looking North Art from the University of Alaska Museum among other titles Aaron Glass is an assistant professor at the Bard Graduate Center in New York City where he teaches anthropology of art museums and material culture He has published on visual art media and performance among First Nations on the Northwest Coast and has produced the documentary film In Search of the Hamat sa A Tale of Headhunting

A Totem Pole History Pauline R. Hillaire, 2022-07-25 Joseph Hillaire Lummi 1894 1967 is recognized as one of the great Coast Salish artists carvers and tradition bearers of the twentieth century In A Totem Pole History his daughter Pauline Hillaire Sc lla Of the Killer Whale who is herself a well known cultural historian and conservator tells the story of her father s life and the traditional and contemporary Lummi narratives that influenced his work A Totem Pole History contains seventy six photographs including Joe s most significant totem poles many of which Pauline watched him carve She conveys with great insight the stories teachings and history expressed by her father s totem poles Eight contributors provide essays on Coast Salish art and carving adding to the author s portrayal of Joe s philosophy of art in Salish life particularly in the context of twentieth century intercultural relations This engaging volume provides an historical record to encourage Native artists and brings the work of a respected Salish carver to the attention of a broader audience Seven Myths of Native American History Paul Jentz,2018-03-02 Seven Myths of Native American History will provide undergraduates and general readers with a very useful introduction to Native America past and present Jentz identifies the origins and remarkable staying power of these myths at the same time he exposes and dismantles them Colin G Calloway Dartmouth College The First Nations of British Columbia, Third Edition Robert J. Muckle,2014-10-15 Since it was first published in 1998 The First Nations of British Columbia has been an essential introduction to the province s first peoples Written within an anthropological framework it familiarizes readers with the history and cultures of First Nations in the province and provides a fundamental understanding of current affairs and concerns This fully revised third edition includes an all new introduction and conclusion updated information and references sidebars on topics of interest such as totem poles sasquatch and Chinook jargon discussions of enduring stereotypes and misperceptions of First Nations excerpts from important historical documents including the Canadian government s Apology for Residential Schools Concise and accessibly written this book is essential reading for anyone who wants to deepen their understanding of First Nations in what is now British Columbia Philosophical Perspectives on Ruins, Monuments, and Memorials Jeanette Bicknell,Jennifer Judkins,Carolyn Korsmeyer,2019-07-15 This collection of newly published essays examines our relationship to physical objects that invoke commemorate and honor the past The recent destruction of cultural heritage in war and controversies over Civil War monuments in the US have foregrounded the importance of artifacts that embody history The book invites us to ask How do memorials convey their meanings What is our responsibility for the preservation or reconstruction of historically significant structures How should we respond when the public display of a monument divides a community This anthology includes coverage of the destruction of Palmyra and the Bamiyan Buddhas the loss of cultural heritage through war and natural disasters the explosive controversies surrounding Confederate era monuments and the decay of industry in the U S Rust Belt The authors consider issues of preservation and reconstruction the nature of ruins the aesthetic and ethical values of memorials and the relationship of cultural memory to material artifacts that remain from the past Written by a leading group of philosophers art historians and archeologists the 23 chapters cover monuments and memorials from Dubai to Detroit from the instant destruction of Hiroshima to the gradual sinking of Venice Native North American Art Janet Catherine Berlo,Ruth Bliss Phillips,2015 This lively introductory survey of indigenous North American arts from ancient times to the present explores both the shared themes and imagery found across the continent and the distinctive traditions of each region Focusing on the richness of artwork created in the US and Canada Native North American Art Second Edition discusses 3 000 years of architecture wood and rock carvings basketry dance masks clothing and more The expanded text discusses twentieth and twenty first century arts in all media including works by James Luna Kent Monkman Nadia Myre Jaune Quick to See Smith
