Alastair Hudson,2017-07-06 Understanding Company Law is a lively introduction to the key principles of the Companies Act 2006 and modern company law. It takes a unique approach to the subject which also encompasses the important and growing fields of securities regulation, corporate governance and corporate social responsibility. This book covers all of the key topics that a student reader will encounter in any company law course. The discussion presents the key principles simply before guiding the reader through the more complex issues that are often the focus of examinations in this subject. It also offers pathways into further reading while injecting enjoyment back into the topic. In Understanding Company Law Professor Hudson provides a straightforward guide to the law while providing context, detailed analyses of the leading cases and no little humour. The second edition covers key recent changes and developments in company law both case law and statutory, including two recent Supreme Court decisions on piercing the corporate veil VTB Capital plc v Nutritek International Corp and others and Prest v Petrodel Resources Limited Others and an analysis of the Conservative government's Green Paper on Corporate Governance. The Unincorporated Woman Dani Kollin, Eytan Kollin, 2011-08-16

There's a civil war in space and the unincorporated woman is enlisted. The epic continues. The award-winning saga of a revolutionary future takes a new turn. Justin Cord the unincorporated man is dead, betrayed and his legacy of rebellion and individual freedom is in danger. General Black is the great hope of the military but she cannot wage war from behind the President's desk. So there must be a new president anointed by Black to hold the desk job and who better than the only woman resurrected from Justin Cord's past era the scientist who created his resurrection device the only born unincorporated woman. The perfect figurehead. Except that she has ideas of her own and secrets of her own and the talent to run the government her way. She is a force that no one anticipated and no one can control. The first novel in this thought-provoking series, The Unincorporated Man, won the 2009 Prometheus Award for best novel.

Making Care Work

Nancy Folbre, 2026-03-17 A bold critique of conventional economics that reveals why the time and money we devote to care work is vital to our economic future. Our economy is much bigger than the dollar value of things we buy and sell. It depends on us our health our creativity and our moral commitments. These capabilities don't have price tags but are crucial to a sustainable future. We need to acknowledge and reward the value of caring for ourselves and others especially our children our elderly and those experiencing illness or disability. From leading feminist economist Nancy Folbre, Making Care Work provides a compelling historical and economic account of care provision in the United States. Folbre traces the long and colorful history of resistance to bogus claims that only paid work counts and that employees in care services are always paid what they deserve. Explaining why care providers remain economically vulnerable today she argues that more attention to the public benefits of care provision could help build the political coalitions needed to implement policies that put people first. In this comprehensive and bold book Folbre upends conventional economic thinking and maps a hopeful path toward a more equitable and sustainable economy      Day by Day Kollin Bros, Day By Day is a Mayan prophecy tale that takes place on the last day of Earth's existence The Prometheus award winning authors have not only come up with a doomsday like no other they've also managed to place the fate of humanity on the hopes and perseverance of a most unlikely duo quite possibly the strangest in science fiction history Enjoy Day By Day a Kollin Brothers adventure that begins at the end      The Magazine of Fantasy & Science Fiction ,2009-04      Cornell Extension Bulletin ,1956      Cornell Extension Bulletin New York State College of Agriculture.
