Musk, 2003

Unseen Face of Islam, 1994 The Unseen Face of Islam: Sharing the Gospel with Ordinary Muslims Bill Musk, 1989 Encountering the World of Islam Keith E. Swartley, 2005 Encountering the World of Islam guides you on a journey into the lives of Muslims around the world and in your neighborhood Through this comprehensive collection you will learn about Muhammad and the history of Islam gain insight into today's conflicts and dispel western fears and myths You will also discover the frustrations and desires of Muslims and learn how to pray for and befriend them Encountering the World of Islam provides a positive balanced and biblical perspective on God's heart for Muslims and equips you to reach out to them in Christ's love Encountering the World of Islam features articles from eighty authors who have lived throughout the Muslim world from West Africa to Southeast Asia Experienced missionaries scholars of Islam and other well known authors including several Muslims contribute to this extensive ministry resource Shalom: God's Ultimate Purpose for the World Dae-Young Lee, 2021-06-23 What is our preconception about Muslims Do we continue to practice medical missions in a way that is no longer considered an effective means of presenting the gospel to the unreached Is our gospel message biblically balanced and firmly contextualized in the context that we try to serve There are numerous questions that we may ask ourselves when we desire to share God's love with people who are still alienated from it Christian cross cultural missions should reconsider the strategies and attitudes that no longer reflect biblical principles This book brings a lot of insightful thoughts and suggestions from the author's medical ministry experience in the Arab world to those who want to reach out to the unreached The theology of shalom enables us to deeply understand God's ultimate purpose toward the world that he created and to devote our lives to bring people to his kingdom in the humble way that Jesus has presented throughout his life on earth when he was with us This book demonstrates how Christian medical missions can be manifested in a more biblical way and can serve people who have been physically injured and emotionally broken more effectively Islam in Context Peter G. Riddell, Peter Cotterell, 2003-07 Go behind recent crises and discover a way forward with this description of Islam's history basic structure and beliefs and divisions Islamic Culture, 1997 Corpus Anarchicum Hamid Dabashi, 2012-09-24 This book is a meditation on and an attempt to understand suicidal violence in the immediate context of its most recent political surge the decade between 2001 and 2011 from the suicidal mission of Muhammad Atta and his band in the United States to the suicide of Mohamed Bouazizi in 2010 in Tunisia After the former a devastating military strike and occupation of two Muslim countries commenced and after the latter a massive transnational democratic uprising ensued

Suicidal violence is neither specific to Islam nor peculiar to our time. It has been manifested in practically all cultures and religions and throughout human history. But the suicidal violence we witness today is of an entirely different disposition because the bodies both of the assailant and of the assailed on which it is perpetrated are no longer the human body of our Enlightenment assumption. What we are witnessing is in fact the contour of a posthuman body. The posthuman body as Dabashi here proposes is the body of a contingent and contextual being and as such an object of disposable knowledge while the human body that it has superseded was corporeally integral, autonomous, rational, indispensable and above all the site of a knowing subject.

Islamic Ideology and Fundamentalism in Pakistan Warren Fredrick Larson, 1998. Much has been previously written on the causes and dynamics of Christian conversion and many recent studies have addressed the issue of global Islamic fundamentalism. Islamic Ideology and Fundamentalism in Pakistan: A Climate for Conversion to Christianity finds a correlation between the dynamics of Christian conversion and the issue of global Islamic fundamentalism and suggests that a crisis over ideology and Islamization in Pakistan is paving the way for Christian mission. Due to competing theories of statehood and state law inconsistency, instability and conflicts in the movement, it suggests that the Islamic impulse has exacerbated ethnic strife and religious sectarianism. It enables students of missiology to understand the Muslim mentality and the problems of minorities who have lived under the shariah Islamic law. The author employs an integrated methodology of theological and behavioral sociological disciplines to provide a framework for Muslim-Christian understanding and develops a theory that utilizes missiological insights but emphasizes that Scripture always remains the final court of appeal in conversion studies. Although this research does not support a claim that large numbers are turning to Christ in Pakistan, it does find evidence that Islamization now has an increased receptivity to the Christian mission.

The Last of the Giants George Otis, 1991. A fascinating exploration of the political, cultural and spiritual trends around the world today interpreted in light of biblical prophecy.

Missionalia, 1990. Contains abstracts of missiological contributions, book reviews and articles.

Islam and the Destiny of Man Charles Le Gai Eaton, 1985-09-30. Islam and the Destiny of Man by Charles Le Gai Eaton is a wide-ranging study of the Muslim religion from a unique point of view. The author, a former member of the British Diplomatic Service, was brought up as an agnostic and embraced Islam at an early age after writing a book commissioned by T. S. Eliot on Eastern religions and their influence upon Western thinkers. As a Muslim, he has retained his adherence to the perennial philosophy which he maintains underlies the teachings of all the great religions. The aim of this book is to explore what it means to be a Muslim, a member of a community which embraces a quarter of the world's population and to describe the forces which have shaped the hearts and the minds of Islamic people. After considering the historic confrontation between Islam and Christendom and analysing the difference between the three monotheistic faiths—Judaism, Christianity and Islam—the author describes the two poles of Muslim belief in terms of Truth and Mercy: the unitarian truth which is the basis of the Muslim's faith and the mercy inherent in this truth. In the second part of the book he explains the significance of the Qur'an and tells the dramatic story of Muhammad's life and of the early Caliphate. Lastly the author considers the Muslim view of man's destiny, the social structure of Islam, the role of art and mysticism and the inner meaning of Islamic teaching concerning the hereafter. Throughout this book the author is concerned not with the religion of Islam in isolation but with the very nature of religious faith, its spiritual and intellectual foundations and the light it casts upon the mysteries and paradoxes of the human condition. The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences, 2008. Islam and Protestant African American Churches Marsha Snulligan Haney, 1999. Presents a systematic means by which the criteria for the development of an appropriate model of Christian contextualization might be identified and formulated as a resource for the mission of evangelization and re-evangelization in the African American community facing the challenge of Islam. We Believe in One God? Albert Sundararaj Walters, 2002. Islam and Its World Gunnar Norlén, 2001. Christians and Muslims Peter G. Riddell, 2004. This survey explores the diverse Muslim approaches to British society and identifies the evolving approaches to other faiths found within the churches. Securely underpinned with Christian theology it examines the many areas in which Christians and Muslims living within secular societies share common concerns and identifies where religion ends and culture begins. Most significantly it explores how and why Christian-Muslim relationships can and urgently must be improved. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc.
