The Curate in Charge Mrs Oliphant,2018-08-27 When the aged Curate in Charge of Brentburn parish church loses his position of 20 years he is too overwhelmed to act for himself it will be up to his two daughters to determine how to support the family of five which includes two little boys from a second marriage The eldest sister Cecily is the practical one who must determine how to plan and work for the family s future even if it means being reduced to a lower social status Cecily feels angry at a system which will do nothing for her aged father Thus when the young new Rector appears her anger extends to him too at least at first The Rector Roger Mildmay is drawn to Cecily though he assures himself he is not in love He is absorbed with his own problem how to experience real life As the time to leave Brentburn draws near the situation of the dear but ineffectual Curate will reach a crisis
