The Diary Of Dawid Rubinowicz:

The Diary of Dawid Rubinowicz Dawid Rubinowicz, 1981 Jewish Masculinity in the Holocaust Maddy Carey, 2017-10-05 This book explores for the first time the impact of the Holocaust on the gender identities of Jewish men Drawing on historical and sociological arguments it specifically looks at the experiences of men in France Holland Belgium and Poland Jewish Masculinity in the Holocaust starts by examining the gendered environment and ideas of Jewish masculinity during the interwar period and in the run up to the Holocaust The volume then goes on to explore the effect of Nazi persecution on various elements of male gender identity analysing a wide range of sources including diaries and journals written at the time underground ghetto newspapers and numerous memoirs written in the intervening years by survivors Taken together these sources show that Jewish masculinities were severely damaged in the initial phases of persecution particularly because men were unable to perform the gendered roles they expected of themselves More controversially however Maddy Carey also shows that the escalation of the persecution and later enclosure whether through ghettoisation or hiding offered men the opportunity to reassert their masculine identities Finally the book discusses the impact of the Holocaust on the practice of fatherhood and considers its effect on the transmission of masculinity This important study breaks new ground in its coverage of gender and masculinities and is an important text for anyone studying the history of the Holocaust Poland September 1939 - July 1941 Klaus-Peter Friedrich, 2023-03-20 Executive editor Klaus Peter Friedrich English language edition prepared by Elizabeth Harvey Russell Alt Haaker Johannes Gamm Georg Felix Harsch Dorothy Mas and Caroline Pearce This volume the first of three in the series focusing on the persecution and murder of the Jews in occupied Poland documents the developments from the attack on Poland in September 1939 up to July 1941 It covers the territories of western and northern Poland annexed to the Reich as well as the General Government With the attack on Poland around two million Polish Jews came under German rule Jews were immediately subjected to stigmatization and humiliation exposed to arbitrary acts of violence deprived of their livelihoods subjected to forced labour and forcibly displaced In July 1940 a report by representatives of Polish Jews on the situation in the annexed territories of Poland sent to the US embassy in Berlin described a downcast stigmatized Jewish population terrorized and powerless in face of displacement expulsions and the increasing incarceration of the Jewish population in ghettos and it predicted that the process of destruction is not yet complete The volume documents the drive by the occupiers systematically to confiscate the property of the Polish Jews and the different often chaotic and conflicting strategies for displacing Jews in the annexed territories and in the General Government The volume shows a range of reactions by the non Jewish population of Poland to the escalating persecution of the Polish Jews It also shows the efforts by Jewish organizations to publicize their plight abroad to withstand the onslaught on their communities and to manage daily life in the increasingly desperate conditions of the ghettos Learn more about the PMJ on <https://pmjdocuments.org> Blackwood's Magazine, 1976 First-Person Accounts
