The Discerning Of Spirits:

The Discerning of Spirits Frank Hammond, 2014-11-17 The gift of discerning of spirits is a powerful weapon in the Christian's arsenal. When God calls us into ministry, He equips us. God has called all of us into spiritual warfare and spiritual battle. His Church will be a militant Church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against her. The weapons God supplies us with are not carnal or fleshly weapons but spiritual ones; they are mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds. We are equipped by God for spiritual warfare through the gifts of the Holy Spirit mentioned in 1 Corinthians 12. God has said that these are the channels through which His power will flow, the avenues through which His Holy Spirit will operate. Chief among these gifts for the ministry of deliverance is the gift of discerning of spirits. We must rely upon the Holy Spirit for the ministry of deliverance and nothing else, not the arm of the flesh or the voice of demons. Frank Hammond explains the application of this gift to the believer and provides examples of how it has worked in his own ministry. He concludes with a prayer of impartation for the reader to receive this gift and the gifts of knowledge, wisdom, and faith.

Anderson succeeds in neatly fitting together selected pieces of the history of discernment of spirits to provide a valuable readable description of the contours of its evolution in the late Middle Ages Debra L Stoudt Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University The Medieval Review Late medieval Christians lived in a world of visions but they knew that not all visions came from God angels demons illness nature or passion could also inspire an apparent divine visitation During the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries the involvement of visionaries in everything from reform movements to military campaigns to papal schisms raised the political and spiritual stakes of determining whether or not a vision was truly from God. In response a diverse group of medieval thinkers including men and women clergy and laity visionaries and theologians gradually began to transform the loose patristic readings of Pauline discretio spirituum into a system with the potential to distinguish between true and false visions and between genuine and delusional visionaries. Wendy Love Anderson chronicles the historical political and spiritual struggles behind the flowering of late medieval mysticism and what came to be seen as the Christian doctrine of discernment of spirits.

How to See the Holy Spirit, Angels, and Demons Gordon James Klingenschmitt, 2013-12-01 Are God angels and demons really invisible? Or can the spirits be seen with human eyes through the lens of Church Ethics? The gift of discerning of spirits is indispensable to the study of church ethics. Ignatius of Loyola founder of the Society of Jesus Jesuits wrote two sets of Rules for Discerning of Spirits in his Spiritual Exercises in the early 1500s. He taught how the church can receive from God the gift to see otherwise invisible angels demons and the Holy Spirit. Ignatius' views were influenced by John Cassian Jacobus de Voragine Ludolph of Saxony and Thomas Kempis. Ignatius' Rules are exegeted in dialogue with contemporary scholars Karl Rahner Hugo Rahner Piet Penning de Vries Jules Toner and Timothy Gallagher and applied to one study of ecclesial ethics in the narrative theology of Samuel Wells. A four step Ignatian pneumatological ethical method is developed which any analyst can follow to see the spirits by consolation desolation consent manifestation and pneumatological ethics. This method revolutionizes how we study ecclesiology soteriology missiology world religions liturgy worship Eucharist hermeneutics homiletics pastoral counseling church history and politics. The spirits are not invisible at all. They can be clearly discerned through the lens of ecclesial ethics.

Early Christian Discernment of Spirits Elisabeth Hense, 2016 Based upon a comparative analysis this book argues that early notions of discernment of spirits are not superior to later ones.

Discernment of spirits is not a matter of an apostolically fixed ideal that should be traditionally cleaved to but above all is a continual re shaping and restructuring of this tradition Christians were not expected to imitate the discernment of others but rather were encouraged to make judgments for themselves Dr Elisabeth Hense is Assistant Professor for Spiritual Theology at Radboud University Nijmegen NL

Discerning the Spirits André Munzinger, 2007-08-02 How did Paul determine ethical and theological truth Were all believers expected to be able to discern the spirits 1 Corinthians 12 10 This 2007 study shows that discernment must be understood against the backdrop of an extensive hermeneutic by which Paul inherently relates ethical and theological knowledge Understanding the will of God requires noetic and existential transformation in short the renewal of the mind Romans 12 2 Munzinger argues that Paul implies a process of inspiration in which the Spirit sharpens the discerning functions of the mind because the believer is liberated from a value system dominated by status and performance The love of God enables all believers to learn to interpret reality in a transformed manner and to develop creative solutions to questions facing their communities For Paul authentic discernment is linked to a comprehensive sense of meaning
