We Wont Go Back Making The Case For Affirmative Action:

We Won't Go Back Charles Lawrence, Mari J. Matsuda, 1997 Perhaps most striking is the human face of affirmative action today which emerges radiantly from the stories gathered here The Racial Glass Ceiling Roy L. Brooks, 2017-05-30 A compelling study of a subtle and insidious form of racial inequality in American law and culture Why does racial equality continue to elude African Americans even after the election of a black president Liberals blame white racism while conservatives blame black behavior Both define the race problem in socioeconomic terms mainly citing jobs education and policing Roy Brooks a distinguished legal scholar argues that the reality is more complex He defines the race problem African Americans face today as a three headed hydra involving socioeconomic judicial and cultural conditions Focusing on law and culture Brooks defines the problem largely as racial subordination the act of impeding racial progress in pursuit of nonracist interests Racial subordination is little understood and underacknowledged yet it produces devastating and even deadly racial consequences that affect both poor and socioeconomically successful African Americans Brooks addresses a serious problem in many ways more dangerous than overt racism and offers a well reasoned solution that draws upon the strongest virtues America has exhibited to the world Affirmative Action Lynne Eisaguirre, 1999-11-08 This book presents an overview of affirmative action since its inception during the civil rights and women s movements of the 1960s and includes profiles of both advocates and critics of the argument that government policies can redress gender and racial inequality Brigham Young University Education and Law Journal , 2006 Great American Court Cases: Equal protection and family law Mark F. Mikula, L. Mpho Mabunda, Allison McClintic Marion, 1999 Profiles nearly eight hundred judicial proceedings New Labor Forum , 1997 Michigan Law Review , 2003 Immigrant Politics and the Public Library Susan Luevano-Molina, 2001-09-30 This book explores the impact of the nativist movement on public library usage among Latino and Asian immigrants The activism of concerned librarians within the California Library Association to defend the rights of immigrant library users after the passage of Proposition 187 is documented In addition four original research studies suggest that public libraries that provided relevant multilingual collections and services multilingual staff and strong public services have remained vibrant and well used institutions despite widespread anti immigrant sentiments and heightened anxiety among library users The extensive qualitative studies that are reported in this volume are unique to the field of library science Three of the studies focus on the heavily Mexican Latino immigrant city of Santa Ana CA which is located in Orange County home to the most virulent anti immigrant forces including the Save Our State organizers who initiated the Proposition 187 legislation Two articles deal specifically with Asian American communities one ascertaining the negative effects of the elimination of affirmative action policies in public library hiring and promotion the other recounting the political nature and practice that characterizes dynamic community services to Asian immigrant communities Resonances of Slavery in Race/Gender Relations Jane Flax, 2010-11-15 In a provocative and insightful exposition Jane Flax posits that Americans have never properly mourned slavery and its lingering effects on American subjects and politics Using an interdisciplinary approach the book shows that a reciprocal relationship exists between unconscious processes and race gender domination and that unless we attend to these unconscious processes no adequate remedy for the malignant consequences of our current race gender practices and relations can be devised Wide ranging Flax supports her arguments using a variety of sources including psychoanalytic theory feminist theory political theory Michel Foucault s writings Obama s books and speeches critical race theory data on race gender disparities and analysis of contemporary films Meritocracy and Americans' Views on Distributive Justice Richard T. Longoria,2009 This book focuses on public opinion on issues related to the theory of meritocracy By researching and studying a variety of sources in an attempt to understand public sentiments concerning meritocracy Richard T Longoria highlights the contradictory nature of American public opinion and questions the belief that Americans fully embrace the meritocratic ethos BOOK JACKET Constitutional Commentary ,2004 Asian Law Journal ,2004-05 Temple international and comparative law journal ,1999 Touro Law Review ,1998

Symposium, Latinos and Latinas at the Epicenter of Contemporary Legal Discourses ,2008 Minnesota Law Review ,1997 Michigan Journal of Gender & Law ,1999 Combating Racial Discrimination Erna Appelt,Monika Jarosch,2000-01-05 Xenophobia and racism are among the unsolved problems of our time Globalisation mass migration and unemployment as well as the need to invent new supranational identities create new problems of inclusion and exclusion
