Good News About Traffic Accidents: No 1977 Deaths

The Baytown Police Department is pleased to announce that there have been no traffic deaths in 1977. This is a significant improvement over the previous year, when there were several deaths. The department attributes this success to increased traffic safety education and enforcement. They have been running a series of campaigns to encourage drivers to wear seat belts and obey traffic laws. They have also been cracking down on drunk driving and other dangerous behaviors. The department hopes to continue this trend and keep the roads safe for everyone.

Prosecution And Defense Rest In Trial Of McManus

Outcome Now Up To Jury

The trial of James McManus, charged with the murder of a woman, is now in the hands of the jury. The prosecution and defense have both rested their cases. The jury will now hear the evidence and decide on the verdict. The trial has been a long and complex one, with many witnesses and a large amount of evidence. The jury is expected to reach a verdict by the end of the week.

State Overrules Crosby Bid In Recount Of School Vote

The State of Texas has ruled in favor of the school board in a recount of the school bond vote. The school board had filed a lawsuit to overturn the results of the vote, which had been won by the opposition. The state court has ruled that the school board's actions were illegal and that the original results of the vote stand. This is a significant victory for the school board and its supporters.

The school board had argued that the vote was fraudulent and that the results should be overturned. They claimed that there had been widespread voter fraud and that the results did not reflect the true will of the voters. The state court, however, found no evidence of fraud and ruled in favor of the school board. The school board is now free to proceed with the bond issue.

'Hill' School Bond Votes Are Canvassed By Trustees

The trustees of the Hill School District are currently canvassing the results of the school bond vote. They are going door-to-door to talk to voters and get their feedback. The trustees want to make sure that they have a clear understanding of what the voters think about the bond issue. They are also trying to get as many votes as possible in favor of the bond issue.

'Hill' Street Upgrading Is In The Works

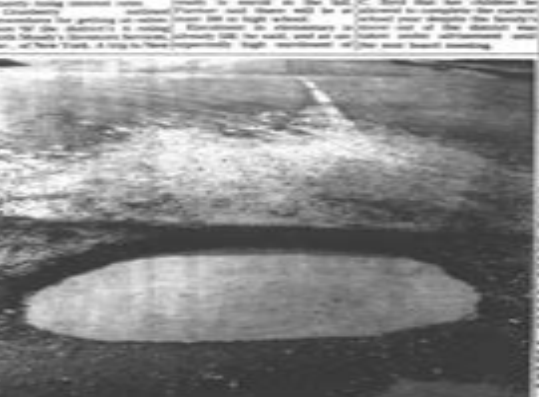

The City of Hill is planning to upgrade the main street in the town. The project will involve widening the street, repaving it, and adding sidewalks. The city is also planning to add some landscaping and streetlights. The project is expected to be completed by the end of the year. This will be a major improvement for the town and will make the street safer and more attractive.

Exxon Sets Shareholders Meeting

Exxon has announced that it will hold a shareholders meeting on June 15th. The meeting will be held at the company's headquarters in New York City. It will be an important event for the company's shareholders, as they will have the opportunity to hear from the company's management and to vote on important issues. The meeting will be broadcast live on television.

Surface Water Plant Cost Estimates Due

The City of Baytown is expected to receive cost estimates for a new surface water plant. The plant is needed to provide clean water to the city's residents. The city is currently in the planning stage of the project and is looking for bids from contractors. The cost estimates will be used to determine the budget for the project and to select a contractor to build the plant.

BEWARE OF 'LAKE JAMES'

BEWARE OF 'LAKE JAMES' is a warning to drivers to be careful of the water level in the lake. The lake is known for its high water levels, which can be dangerous for boats and swimmers. Drivers should be cautious when driving near the lake and should avoid driving on the beach if the water is high.

From the World

WASHINGTON - President Carter called Congress today to urge it to approve a plan to keep the government from defaulting on its obligations. The president said that the government must not fail to pay its debts, and he urged Congress to pass a law to prevent this from happening.

WASHINGTON - The House of Representatives today passed a bill to increase the federal deficit. The bill would allow the government to borrow more money from the public. This is a controversial move, as it would increase the national debt. The bill is expected to be signed into law by the president.

WASHINGTON - The Supreme Court today ruled in favor of the school board in a case involving the school bond issue. The court ruled that the school board's actions were legal and that the bond issue should proceed. This is a significant victory for the school board and its supporters.

WASHINGTON - The Federal Reserve Bank today announced that it will raise the interest rate. This is the first time in several years that the rate has been raised. The increase is intended to help control inflation and stabilize the economy.

WASHINGTON - The U.S. Department of Justice today announced that it will prosecute a group of people who are accused of conspiring to defraud the government. The group is alleged to have been involved in a large-scale scheme to steal money from the government. The case is expected to be tried in the near future.

WASHINGTON - The U.S. Supreme Court today ruled that the federal government has the right to regulate the interstate commerce. This is a landmark decision that will have a significant impact on the federal government's power. The ruling is expected to be appealed to the Supreme Court.
