Pablo Abend, Mathias Fuchs, Karin Wenz, 2022-03-07 This double issue of Digital Culture Society addresses the dialectics of play and labour taking a closer look at the problem of play and work from two overlapping albeit not mutually exclusive perspectives. After the first issue explored the notion of laborious play this second one studies the concept of playful work. The contributions feature critical inquiries into various phenomena of playful work ranging from interfaces of play and work in the BDSM subculture over labour in digital gaming to high frequency trading. Alongside the articles the issue features an interview with Fred Turner Chair of the Department of Communication at Stanford University. He talks about the Bauhaus in the US countercultural cybernetics technology and consciousness and work in the Silicon Valley.

Facebook has been under constant fire for the past five years roiled by controversies and crises. As the tech giant was connecting the world it was also mishandling users data, spreading fake news and amplifying dangerous polarizing hate speech while relentlessly pursuing growth. The company many said had simply lost its way. But the truth is far more complex. Mark Zuckerberg and Sheryl Sandberg held up as archetypes of uniquely twenty first century executives attempted to deflect attention from the crises. And while consumers and lawmakers focused their outrage on privacy breaches and misinformation Facebook solidified its role as the world's most voracious data mining machine posting record profits and shoring up its dominance via aggressive lobbying efforts. Drawing on their unrivaled sources award winning New York Times reporters Sheera Frenkel and Cecilia King unravel the tech behemoth's complex politics, alliances and rivalries to expose the fatal cracks in its architecture. They reveal how its missteps were not an anomaly but an inevitability. This is how Facebook was built to perform. WINNER OF THE SABEW BEST IN BUSINESS AWARD. A Book of the Year. Nanton, Mary V. Alfred, 2009-07-20 Fostering Transformative Learning is about teaching for change. It is not an approach to be taken lightly arbitrarily or without much thought. Many would argue that it requires intentional action, a willingness to take personal risk, a genuine concern for the learners' betterment and the wherewithal to draw on a variety of methods and techniques that help create a classroom environment that encourages and supports personal growth. What makes the work of transformative learning even more difficult is the lack of clear signposts or guidelines that teachers can follow when they try to teach for change. There is now a need to return to the classroom and look through the lens of those who have been engaged in the practice of fostering transformative learning. Book Jacket
