OBJECTIVE
This section should present a quick summary of your experience, training, and highlight relevant skills for the medical role you're seeking. Many hiring managers and recruiters on average only spend a few seconds to review your CV the first time. Their primary aim is to quickly determine whether your application should be considered further. Think of this objective section as a place for a short, concise paragraph that tells them who you are and how you fit an employer's needs.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Health Services Manager, SAC San Francisco Department of Health
San Francisco, CA | 2010-2015 - 2010-2015
• Add your accomplishments that make the most sense and best highlight your skills
• Write a short-term resume for every job opening because no matter what resume will quickly get your application noticed
• Double-check the dates, job titles, and names of employers and previous employers

Medical Manager, SAC San Francisco Department of Health
San Francisco, CA | 2010-2015 - 2010-2015
• Carefully read the job description and tailor your resume to highlight how you are the ideal candidate based on matching skills and experience
• Highlighting clinical capabilities is a must for every medical professional's resume and should include what sets you apart from others, such as your licensure

EDUCATION
Bachelor of Science | University of Illinois School of Medicine | San Francisco, CA | 2008 - 2008
Pre-medical Studies | Sonoma College | San Francisco, CA | 2008 - 2008
Bachelor of Science | University of California, Berkeley | San Francisco, CA | 2008 - 2008

A clear education section where you lay out the relevant training and skills you have for the job

A strong objective section that lays out who you are and why you are perfect for the job

A work experience section in chronological order from the most recent on top to the least recent at the bottom
