There have been many hundreds of books written about humanity from ancient times to the present day trying to describe and understand who we are in relationship to each other and the universe in which we find ourselves Many involve asking such questions as Is there such an entity as God Is there such a thing as human nature Do we have free will What is the best type of economy and society Quite a few of the authors claim to have found the answers and attempted to get their solutions accepted If resisted they or their followers have often resorted to imposing their worldviews by force As the title suggests this is not one of them It is not written to persuade you to adopt any belief system or ideology What has been attempted is to provide a comprehensive coverage of what has so far been suggested an overview that has not appeared before and which is aimed at giving you a range of information on which to form your own considered view on such matters It is also written at a time of great and accelerating change one in which technology is being used to create virtual realities and artificial intelligences and even new kinds of humans And one in which some believe we are in the process of destroying the very environment that sustains us The book has been written to assist understanding and is dedicated to the author's grandchildren

Great Eastern Sun Chögyam Trungpa, 2001-07-17 In Shambhala: The Sacred Path of the Warrior, Chögyam Trungpa offers an inspiring and practical guide to enlightened living based on the Shambhala journey of warriorship, a secular path taught internationally through the Shambhala Training program. Great Eastern Sun: The Wisdom of Shambhala is a continuation of that path. Shambhala was an exploration of human goodness and its potential to create an enlightened society, a state that the author calls nowness.
