Living with chronic illness and neuroendocrine system problems is a mourning routine that is unique to my needs. Along with chronic pain, I struggle with grief that will only subside as my body heals and my spirit is free.

In order to avoid complete gloominess, I practice what keeps me sane on the physical and on an emotional level. For the day, I have a special time with my computer, laptop and the internet presence in both writing and bookkeeping.

The routine also includes reading a log of online notes listing the good times, advice, advice and my personal life. I have a special time with my computer, laptop and the internet presence in both writing and bookkeeping.

These online resources help create a foundation of reality and comfort in my life.
