South Albertas A Canadian Regiment At War:

South Albertas Donald E. Graves,2004 The South Alberta Regiment was formed in 1940 from five Alberta militia units The South Albertas forged a splendid combat record in World War II as the Allies advanced across north west Europe and photographs of their tanks garlanded with flowers and flags and surrounded by jubilant Dutch civilians are familiar to many Canadians The story takes the boys from the bald headed prairie from the Rockies to the Rhine including a detailed account of the SAR s most famous action the controversial Battle of the Falaise Gap in August 1944 where Major David Currie earned the Victoria Cross in four days of vicious fighting at the village of St Lambert sur Dives This book provides a compelling account of what life was like on the very point of the pincer movement with which the Allied armies were attempting to encircle the German armies caught in the famous pocket at Falaise Upon its publication in 1998 South Albertas was greeted as a remarkable work that set a new standard in regimental histories both in the quality of Donald E Graves s text and in the quality of its presentation

On to Victory Mark Zuehlke,2010-08-01 The eighth Canadian Battle Series volume is the little told story of the tense final days of World War II remembered in the Netherlands as the sweetest of springs which saw the country s liberation from German occupation The Liberation Campaign a series of fierce desperate battles during the last three months of the war was bittersweet A nation s freedom was won and the war concluded but these final hostilities cost Canada 6 298 casualties including 1 482 dead With his trademark you are there style that draws upon official records veteran memories and a keen understanding of the combat experience Mark Zuehlke brings to life this concluding chapter in the story of Canada in World War II May 4 2010 will mark the 65th anniversary of the Netherlands liberation

Canada and the Second World War Geoffrey Hayes, Mike Bechthold, Matt Symes,2013-02-01 Terry Copp s tireless teaching research and writing has challenged generations of Canadian veterans teachers and students to discover an informed memory of their country s role in the Second World War This collection drawn from the work of Terry s colleagues and former students considers Canada and the Second World War from a wealth of perspectives Social cultural and military historians address topics under five headings The Home Front The War of the Scientists The Mediterranean Theatre Normandy Northwest Europe and The Aftermath The questions considered are varied and provocative How did Canadian youth and First Nations peoples understand their wartime role What position did a Canadian scientist play in the Allied victory and in the peace Were veterans of the Mediterranean justified in thinking theirs was the neglected theatre How did the Canadians in Normandy overcome their opponents but not their historians Why was a Cambridge scholar attached to First Canadian Army to protect monuments And why did Canadians come to commemorate the Second World War in much the same way they commemorated the First The study of Canada in the Second World War continues to challenge confound and surprise In the questions it poses the evidence it considers and the conclusions it draws this important collection says much about the lasting influence of the work of Terry Copp Foreword by John Cleghorn

This is the story of a forgotten fighting service During the Second World War the Royal Canadian Navy expanded from a tiny force of ten warships in 1939 to the third largest Allied navy by 1945 The RCN's primary wartime role was convoy escort in the North Atlantic and Canadian warships served in this grim theatre where the weather was an enemy almost as dangerous as the U boats for nearly six years In Peril on the Sea is the story of the Canadian navy and its important contribution to Allied victory in the Battle of the Atlantic the most crucial battle of the Second World War Much of this fascinating saga is presented through the personal accounts of 65 eyewitnesses British Canadian German sailors submariners and merchant seamen who participated in the Second World War's longest operation In Peril on the Sea contains nearly 200 photographs drawings maps graphics and ship profiles which bring to life with compelling immediacy the grim but courageous struggle to preserve the sea lanes of freedom between 1939 and 1945 Commissioned by the Canadian Naval Memorial Trust and written by one of Canada's foremost historians In Peril on the Sea will appeal to general and specialist readers alike Book jacket
