Disciplinary Literacy is about to go from theory to game plan taking students from superficial understanding to deep content expertise And guess what ReLeah Lent's big secret lies in highlighting each content area's differences advancing a discipline specific model in which literacy is used as a tool for strategic thinking reading writing and doing within each field That's right no more reading strategies used uniformly across the curriculum Instead This Is Disciplinary Literacy helps content area teachers put into action the key literacies of their specialties Teaching science Students must evaluate evidence and question as they read History Comparing and contrasting sources and interpreting the import of events are key Writing in Math Accuracy is favored over elaboration and craft Reading fiction in ELA Synthesizing and attuning to voice and figurative language reign supreme Students fully own knowledge because your instruction zeroes in on the academic habits that matter most Content area by content area ReLeah shows how to immediately incorporate these literacies into lessons units and project based learning Inside you'll find Spotlights on all major disciplines that highlight how implementation looks in real classrooms Extend and Adapt sections with ideas for augmenting activities for students who need different challenges or support tips for companion activities and digital sources for short texts and video Q & A sections bringing both reassurance and get it done advice New ways to reboot essential research based practices that work in any field reading writing inquiry and collaboration Free companion website featuring a complete PD workshop with PowerPoint slides for ready to go professional learning And best of all students not only engage in the genuine intellectual challenges of the disciplines they are eager to do so This Is Disciplinary Literacy gives students entrance to the global communities of practice and provides schools districts and teachers with a proven approach that makes college and career readiness a reality Featured Book Common Core CPR

Literacy and Learning in the Content Areas Sharon Kane,2017-07-05 The 3rd Edition of Literacy Learning in the Content Areas helps readers build the knowledge motivation tools and confidence they need as they integrate literacy into their middle and high school content area classrooms Its unique approach to teaching content area literacy actively engages preservice and practicing teachers in reading and writing and the very activities that they will use to teach literacy to their own students in middle and high school classrooms. Rather than passively learning about strategies for incorporating content area literacy activities, readers get hands on experience in such techniques as mapping, webbing, anticipation guides, booktalks, class websites and journal writing and reflection. Readers also learn how to integrate children's and young adult literature, primary sources, biographies, essays, poetry and online content communities and websites into their classrooms. Each chapter offers concrete teaching examples and practical suggestions to help make literacy relevant to students' content area learning. Author Sharon Kane demonstrates how relevant reading, writing, speaking, listening and visual learning activities can improve learning in content area subjects and at the same time help readers meet national content knowledge standards and benchmarks.
