Levin, Mary Alice McCullough, 2008 Read how this book can help you become a better teacher in your first year of teaching. Unlike any other book on the market Guide for Alternate Route Teachers Strategies for Literacy Development Classroom Management and Teaching and Learning K-12 offers guidance for professionals in all content areas K-12 who are beginning new careers in teaching through the alternate route certification process. This unique book is designed to address all of the important topics that new teachers encounter including classroom management, literacy inclusion, and working with English learners. The overarching goal of this resource is to provide alternate route teachers with the confidence and basic knowledge they need to begin their new careers and their responsibilities as teachers. Why? Reviewers Think This is a Unique Resource. The emphasis on serving all students is admirable. By including information about the inclusive classroom and concomitant teaching strategies the authors are telling new teachers that this is the norm and that being prepared to serve all students from the get go is essential. I applaud them for including this emphasis in their book. I believe this book will be a great resource for alternative route teachers and for all new teachers as well. Mary Glenn Rinne Indiana Department of Education What Makes This Book the First of its Kind Two chapters are totally devoted to literacy development with hands on strategies and ready to use materials that will help teachers understand how to teach literacy and how to help students understand their content area textbooks. Provides a strong knowledge base in inclusive education. Addresses the importance of the home school connection. Offers information and strategies for understanding cultural differences teaching English Language Learners. Students with Special Needs and differentiating instruction for all students. Practical suggestions and strategies that can be immediately implemented. Alignment of teaching practices with state and national tests and standards. Includes strategies for literacy teaching and learning across the curriculum. About the Authors Dr. Fran Levin is the Academic Director of a Statewide Alternate Route teaching program and an associate professor of literacy. She is the Editor of the New Jersey Journal of Literacy and past president of the New Jersey Reading Association. Dr. Mary Alice McCullough is an assistant professor of literacy and has had 25 years of experience as a secondary teacher. A perfect resource for Stage I of the alternate route certification process. Language Arts and Literacy in the Middle Grades

Margaret J. Finders, Susan Hynds, 2007 From two prominent scholars in the field of literacy comes a middle school teacher preparation text that offers important innovations not usually found in traditional secondary methods texts. The book is rife with concrete examples of teaching literacy and language arts in middle school contexts but is relevant to preservice and practicing teachers at middle and high school levels. This edition includes a stronger focus on culturally relevant pedagogy and the needs of English Language Learners as well as a Standards in Practice feature which helps teachers incorporate state and national standards in teaching and planning. The book is based on a teacher as inquirer model. A fieldwork component provides tools for classroom inquiry and reflection in each chapter. The book is timely and relevant with classroom cases written by experienced and new middle school language arts teachers. All Write Dave Kemper, 1998 The Students' Guide to Graduate Studies in the UK, 1993 Teaching Reading in Today's Middle Schools Betty D.

Roe, Sandy H. Smith, 2004-10 This text combines a research based approach to reading instruction with the theories, issues and strategies most relevant to prospective middle school teachers. The authors promote a balanced approach to literacy instruction that includes active learning, cooperative learning and critical thinking strategies. These strategies and their applications empower teachers to become key decision makers in their students' literacy programs. Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1997

Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students Thomas G. Gunning, 2005 With its inclusive view of literacy, Creating Literacy Instruction for All Students emphasizes methods that have been validated by research and practice while delivering the basics of all major aspects of reading and writing. The Fifth Edition of this best selling book continues to be a comprehensive practical text that provides its readers with step by step guidance for teaching reading and writing. Written by distinguished author Tom Gunning, this text features sample lessons for virtually every major literacy skill, strategy and offers numerous reinforcement suggestions and generous listings of materials. With its careful balance between the theory and the practice, readers are always given the theories behind the methods, encouraging them to choose, adapt and construct their own approaches as they create a balanced program of literacy instruction. Special emphasis has been given to adapting instruction for English language learners, struggling readers and writers and special needs students throughout the book. Unlike comparable texts, the new edition stresses effective steps for closing the gap between achieving and struggling readers as mandated by the No Child Left Behind legislation and Reading First. Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts, 1996
