Museum Management Milan Jan Půček, František Ochraňa, Michal Plaček, 2021-11-11 This book centers on museum management with particular focus on risk management. It sees the museum as a modern institution that, in addition to its classical heritage function (collections management), also provides an educational function and implements this education through experience (the experiential function of the museum). It represents a combination of academic excellence and experience from real managers from museums and other public institutions. Additional topics such as strategic and operational museum management and museum research management are discussed, and case studies from daily management practice are included.

The Museum Margaret Talbot Jackson, 1917 The Official Museum Directory, 1993 Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Generalia, language and literature, the arts Albert John Walford, 1998. From its first edition, the purpose of Walford has been to identify and evaluate the widest possible range of reference materials. No rigid definition of reference is applied. In addition to the expected bibliographies, indexes, dictionaries, encyclopaedias and directories, a number of important textbooks and manuals of general practice are included. While the majority of the items are books, Walford is a guide to reference material. Thus, periodical articles, microforms, online and CD-ROM sources are all represented. In this volume, a particular effort has been made to improve coverage of the latter two categories.

Handbook for Museums David Dean, Gary Edson, 2013-10-28 Handbook for Museums is the definitive guide of need-to-know information essential for working in the museum world. The sections provide information on management, security, conservation and education, including technical notes and international reading lists, too. Handbook for Museums is an excellent manual for managing and training.

Managing Museums Lalima Dhar Chakrabarti, 2007. Demand for a National Museum of India was first voiced on 26th July 1837 by Sir James Prinsep then Secretary of the Royal Asiatic Society of Bengal in a Memorandum to the East India Company. But it was not until 15th August 1949 that the National Museum was set up. It was started at the Rashtrapati Bhawan with a nucleus of about five hundred collections from an exhibition of Art of India and Pakistan displayed at the Burlington House, London, immediately after Independence. The Museum shifted to its new building on 18th December 1960. The Museum has now more than two hundred thousand collections, some of them rarest of the rare, but hardly for percent of the collections are displayed. Not more than hundred fifty thousand people visit the Museum annually compared to nearly 60 million visitors to the Louvre in Paris and 50 million to the British Museum of London. The Handbook for Museums Gary Edson, David Dean, 1996. A definitive guide to best practice in museums at a time in which all museums require ever more innovative solutions to processes of interpreting the world's cultural and scientific heritage. Manual for Small Museums Laurence Vail Coleman, 1927.
